Sentenced Policeman to Be Brought Back as Witness in Bunko Cases

Work of Selecting Jury Continues in Judge Lawlor's Court

SAN FRANCISCO, June 17.—Marcus Mayer, a retired butcher, of 1628 Bush street, was selected today to complete the "bunco" case jury, and was sworn to try the case. The court, however, decided that an alternate juror be chosen to listen to the evidence, and at 2 o'clock this afternoon the work of selecting the thirteenth man was begun.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 17.—Former Policeman Frank Esola was not taken to Folsom penitentiary today. Tomorrow morning, however, unless the present plan is changed, he will begin his journey to prison and before nightfall will have started to serve the term of five years imposed by Superior Judge Dunne for the theft of $900 from Charles Foida, a victim of the bunco ring. District Attorney Fickert announced today that Esola would be brought back from Folsom and used as a witness in connection with the graft investigation. It is thought that Esola will be brought before the grand jury to be empaneled on Friday. He is also expected to testify late this afternoon in the trial of Macphee and Taylor.

This morning the session in Judge Lawlor's court of the trial of Detective-Sergeant McPhee and Policeman Charles Taylor began at 10:30 o'clock and an order was issued from the bench that all spectators be excluded. This, however, will not be enforced until tomorrow. As soon as the jury

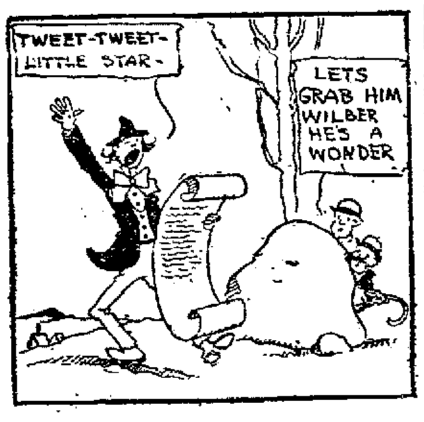
ODE IS WANTED



TWEET-TWEET-LITTLE STAR-

Fourth of July Poem Must Be Written

Wanted—A poet. Not one of the commercial poets who can make "pills" rhyme with "ills" on a patent medicine ad, or even one who can make "trees" and "breeze" fit together, but a real, live, dyed-in-the-wool, inspired and rhetorical devotee of the muse, who can sing in dulcet tones the praises of Oakland in a Fourth of July ode. The Merchants' Exchange, in charge of the proposed Fourth of July celebration, is looking for such a poet. All inspired, please apply.

Last year Joaquin Miller contributed the poem, this marking the aged poet's last appearance in public. This year the committee cannot find any one, but declares that it must have that Fourth of July ode. An enterprising writer of advertisements suggested an ode in which "prosperity" was made to fit everything from "reciprocity" to "My City." It took too much of a stretch to do it, though, and the committee sadly refused the poem. Among those being considered as possible contributors are Ina Coolbrith and Miss Mary Mamford, but neither have as yet agreed to consider the matter.

And so the committee with a toothcomb rakes the city, seeking poets bright and witty for the patriotic ditty, but can't find one. It's a pity!

Attorneys Shortages May Reach $130,000

SAN JOSE, Cal., June 17.—A meeting of those said to have suffered by the alleged misappropriation of funds by Attorney F. L. Dreischmeyer met yesterday in the offices of Attorneys William Beggs and R. C. McComish and it was estimated that Dreischmeyer's alleged shortages amounted to between $123,000 and $130,000. It was agreed to divide the Dreischmeyer assets pro rata among the creditors. Frederick Jansen and Miss Stierlin have expressed willingness to release attachments so as to avoid bankruptcy proceedings. The preliminary hearing on the charge of felony embezzlement will be held Wednesday of next week instead of Friday. It is asserted on good authority that Dreischmeyer will plead guilty and ask for immediate sentence.

PLAN A NEW ISSUE OF BONDS

City Officials Consider Means to Continue Work on Schoolhouses

To Cancel Old Securities and Arrange for New Is Project of Administration

Following a conference between members of the city council and other city officials with a committee from the contractors on the school buildings under construction here, it was announced today that an attempt will be made to cancel all outstanding municipal improvement bonds as yet unsold and to float a new bond issue covering the amount of the cancelled bonds plus money for the completion of the new city hall at a sufficiently high rate of interest to make it possible to dispose of the bonds at par.

The 4½ per cent bonds of the city of Oakland, while recognized as the best municipal bond at that rate of interest in the United States, cannot be disposed of excepting at a heavy discount and, according to Assistant City Attorney A. C. Beardsley, there is no legal way in which the city can sell its bonds below par.

TO HOLD MASS MEETING.

A mass meeting of citizens and representatives of the commercial and civic association and improvement clubs of Oakland will be held in the city council chambers Thursday night for the purpose of discussing the proposed bond issue. The meeting will be addressed by Mayor Mott, Commissioner Harry S. Anderson and there will be an open discussion of the situation.

In the meanwhile Mayor Mott and Commissioner Anderson will hold conferences with the contractors and with the big national firms of bond brokers to discover how big a rate of inteerst will have to be fixed to make the bonds saleable. It is anticipated that the city will have to offer between 5 and 5½ per cent in order to obtain the money.

MAY CONTINUE WORK.

Contractors who are at work on city schools informed the commissioners this morning that if the prospect is good for carrying this bond election and the obtaining of the money, they will probably consent to continue work on the schools. An entire discontinuance of operations would mean great damage to the city as well as to the contractors. Informal assurance was given today that the contractors will probably go ahead with the work and wait for the money to become available through the new bond issue. They will in this case accept warrants from the city auditor as the payments fall due and some provision will probably be made for the payment of interest on these deferred payment warrants.

CONTRACTORS MEET.

The contractors held a meeting last night and presented their case to the city council today at an executive session. The situation was explained to them and the three propositions of the city, as follows, were presented:

First, to go ahead with the work and wait for money to be provided by the new bond issue.

Second, to take the present 4½ per cent bonds to pay at par.

Third, to stop work until money shall be provided.

They will hold a meeting tonight to consider these propositions, but it is informally stated that they favor proceeding with the work.

There are at present in the hands of City Treasurer Edwin Meese approximately two million and a quarter of municipal improvement bonds and school and auditorium bonds unsold. It will be necessary to include this

WATER DISTRICT BILL GOES INTO GOVERNOR'S POCKET

MANY MEASURES WILL REMAIN UNSIGNED

SACRAMENTO, June 17. — Big bills, little bills, bills carrying appropriations of upwards of half a million dollars aggregating in all several millions of dollars, humanitarian measures, labor measures and acts on every conceivable subject are today listed in Governor Johnson's office pocket veto file.

Among the bills in which Alameda county is interested, and which were killed through non-signature by the State's executive were Senate bill 1736 by Senator Strobridge, and Assembly bill 2131, by Assemblyman Clark. The Strobridge act was an amendment to the water district measure passed at the 1911 session, and was intended to enable electors outside of incorporated cities to be excluded from the proposed water dis-[illegible] bill was aimed against the commercializing of the initiative and referendum.

400 ARE KILLED.

More than four hundred bills sent to the governor by the legislature were vetoed by him. Here are some of the big ones which went by the board under his pocket veto:

"The Guiberson milk bills, providing for milk, cream and dairy standards state supervision, county supervision and municipal supervision of dairies; the Senator Thompson bill, appropriating premiums to persons for the sale of San Francisco State harbor improvement bonds; the Senator Wright bill, appropriating $200,000 to be used in paying premiums for the sale of State highway bonds; bill providing for the indeterminate sentence of prisoners.

MANY BILLS REFUSED.

Among other bills refused by the Governor were the Wall district fairs measure appropriating $70,000; the Griffin bill, providing for name State roads; the McDonald measure, seeking to regulate sanitation, health and safety in factories, the Stuckenbruck free market bill; the Wall measure providing for the removal of the Stockton State hospital outside the limits of the city; the Senator Birdsell bill, providing for the payment of claims of delegates of the State constitutional convention of 1907; the Boynton measure, providing State workman's compensation insurance rating bureau; the Senator Grant white slave act and the Senator Finn State bureau of criminal identification and the Cassidy sanitary barber shop regulation measure.

SPANKED SON; UPSET STOVE; FIRE RAZES MANY BUILDINGS

MONTECELLO, N. Y., June 17.—Mrs. B. Wolfe of Ferndale, Sullivan county, near here, tried to spank her young son today and in so doing upset an oil stove. In the fire that followed twelve business houses and three dwellings, including the Wolfe house, were destroyed. The loss will reach $100,000.

OAKLAND-ANTIOCH WOULD ISSUE BONDS

Applies to State Railroad Commission for Bond Issue

SAN FRANCISCO, June 17.—The Oakland, Antioch and Eastern railway applied to the State Railroad Commission this morning for permission to issue bonds to the amount of $1,000,000, the money to be used for the construction of the line from Bay Point to Sacramento. The security tendered by the corporation lies in the improvements contemplated.

The application was filed by Attorney Jesse Steinhart, counsel for the Oakland and Antioch and will be acted upon by the commission immediately. The Oakland, Antioch and Eastern railway has already completed its line from Oakland to Bay Point and for rolling stock, improvements and purchase of rights of way, as well as the construction of bridges and the paving of the way for the through line to Sacramento, $3,000,000 worth of bonds have already been issued.

It is not thought that the Railroad Commission will make any objection to the proposed bond issue.

Strapped to Bed; Beaten By Husband, Is Charge

Cries of agony issuing from the home of O. J. Carlson, 1531 Fiftieth avenue, led the police to force an entrance to the house, where they found Mrs. Carlson strapped to the bed and, according to their statement, being brutaliy beaten by Carlson.

Patrolmen Anderson and Enright, who hurried to the scene, arrived in time to assist Stanley in preventing Carlson from continuing his brutal conduct. Carlson was placed under arrest for battery.

The house was in chaotic condition. Evidences of a terrific struggle between Carlson and his wife were found in almost every room.

Carlson was in court this morning, but did not explain the matter. The case was continued for investigation and the filing of a complaint.

MOTHER SAYS NATIVE WEDDING WAS HELD

Alleged Groom Charges Girl Was Sold to Him in Slavery

Her face giving evidence of the fierceness to which one of her race may be aroused, Rose Cruz, a gypsy fortune teller, declared in the office of District Attorney Hynes this morning that she would kill Pete Mitchell before she allowed her daughter to be again in his control.

"Pete has threatened my life and carried a big knife. I have a revolver and I will protect my daughter," said the mother.

Denying that she or her husband had ever entered into an agreement whereby their daughter should be given to Pete Mitchell for life together with her services as a fortune teller, Mrs. Cruz shed tears at the thought of being misapprehended in the matter.

After filing suit for $26,850 damages against John Cruz and his daughter Rose, Pete Mitchell, through Attorney Sloss of Sacramento, appeared in the office of the district attorney last evening and asked for a warrant for the arrest of Cruz on a charge of white slavery. He claimed that he would produce two white witnesses who were present when Mitchell paid $2500 for the girl. An appointment was made for 11 o'clock this morning, but the Mitchell faction of the gypsy band did not appear, so the Cruz faction returned to their camp at West Berkeley without having arrived at a settlement.

GYPSY CEREMONY.

According to the story told District Attorney Hynes by John Cruz and his wife the girl wanted to marry Mitchell in November, 1911. A gypsy ceremony was performed, when Mitchell footed the bills of "beer, wine and chicken" for the feast. Later Mitchell took the girl to Sacramento, where he is said to have abused her. The matter was called to the attention of the authorities in Sacramento after a cousin of Rose Cruz had ap-[illegible] the treatment accorded her by Mitchell. The parties were arrested and at a hearing before Judge Hughs in Sac-

BULLETIN.

SACRAMENTO, June 17.—Blackie Thomas, who promoted the "devil's ball" last night at Mills Station, where this morning's automobile tragedy originated, was arrested today by Inspector Koenig.

SACRAMENTO, June 17.—One man was killed outright, a woman probably fatally hurt and two other men injured, one seriously, as the result of an automobile smash-up on the Brighton road about one mile east of this city at an early hour this morning.

The dead:

GUY E. PEARCE, 27, son of G. E. Pearce of Pearce-Bosquith Abstract company, Sacramento, neck broken.

The Injured:

MISS VERA BRENNON, Sacramento, badly mangled, will probably die.

HERBERT WOODALL, chauffeur, skull crushed.

C. BATTON, Sacramento, minor injuries.

The party had been attending a "devil's ball" at Mills station. During the dance Miss Brennon swallowed the contents of a vial of poison and Pearce volunteered to take her to Sacramento in an automobile for treatment. Woodall and Batton jumped into the machine to hold the woman, while Pearce drove. The car went at its utmost speed in the race against death.

TURNS OVER TWICE.

When 500 yards east of the railroad tracks at Brighton, Pearce attempted to turn out to pass a peddler's wagon. The car struck soft earth at the side of the road and turned turtle three times, being wrecked beyond repair.

Pearce was thrown 10 feet from the machine and died almost instantly. Miss Brennon was badly mangled. Her right ear was torn off, her left eye gouged out and her skull crushed. At the hospital no hope is held out for her recovery.

MOTT AND CASEY CLASH IN COUNCIL

Mayor Opposes Confusing Infirmary and Water Bonds

The ire of Frank K. Mott, mayor of Oakland, was aroused this morning at the session of the city council to such an extent that the chief executive of the city pronounced a large d——. The subject of his anathema was a paltry $40,00b.

For the past three years the city of Oakland has been working to find a solution to the water problem. Members of the council, members of the municipal water supply committee, city officials, men interested in the public welfare, engineers and others have given time and labor and their best thought to the project. Finally their plans have been brought close to fruition by the prospect of an election being called by the Alameda county board of supervisors to create a metropolitan water district.

The election is soon to be called, and Mayor Mott believes that the creation of this district and the taking over of a municipal water plant is one of the most vital things in the history and development of the bay cities.

It was over a well-intentioned plan in connection with the water district that the wrath of the mayor boiled over this morning, and vented itself upon the innocent head of Thomas I. Casey, assistant secretary of the Alameda County Tax Association. The mayor, while realizing that Casey and the Tax Associttion meant well, felt

Charges Influences In U. P. Unmerging

NEW YORK, June 17.—Judge Robert S. Lovett, chairman of the Union Pacific Company, issued a long statement in New York this afternoon, saying in effect that the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific authorities have been approached by various persons unnamed, professing to have influence which the y would bring to bear in the matter of the Union Pacific-Southern Pacific dissolution proceedings provided the railroad employed certain lawyers. He added that these offers were invariably rejected, as the result of which, presumably, many rumors weer circulated reflecting on the Union Pacific-Southern Pacific management and motives.

Charles Edgar, Cousin of Judge, Blows Out Brains

BERKELEY, June 17.—Charles Edgar, aged 32, member of a prominent Berkeley family, committed suicide last night by blowing out his brains with a revolver. The man's body was found early this afternoon on the floor of the Edgar home, 2241 Telegraph avenue, by his sister, Mrs. M. J. Kidder. He was last seen alive last night at about 7 o'clock. The motive for his act is a mystery. He was a cousin of Justice Robert Edgar of the Berkeley police court.

Mrs. Kidder came to Berkeley from her home in Oakland about noon to clean out the place, and on entering the front door found her brother's body prostrate on the floor, weltering in blood and with a revolver clasped in his right hand.

Bulgarians May Demobilize As Result of New Proposals

VIENNA, June 17.—The Bulgarian government has accepted the demobilization proposals made by Servia and Greece, according to today's Neue Freie Presse. The condition is made, however, that joint garisons be composed of equal numbers of the soldiers of the states concerned before demobilization begins. Bulgaria also demands that all the parties submit to the arbitration of the Russian emperor on the basis of treaty existing before the Balkan war broke out.

He said that he had superintended the removal of the goods but that he had had nothing to do with engaging the moving vans and otherwise than designating what was to be taken, he knew nothing more of the affair.

When the hearing of the petitions for citation opened Attorney E. E. Trefethen, appearing with Attorney Chapman, read the answers of the defendants and objection to the claims made in the citations.

TRANSFERRED DURING LIFE.

"In answer we wish to say that the Prather estate property was given to Samuel Prather during his brother's lifetime, absolute and in fee simple," said Attorney Trefethen.

"In this answer we have done all that is required of us by law as far as probate and the executor is concerned and now the mwatter should rest in a court of equity. It could not be at that time of the estate of his brother for his brother was yet living."

In the effort of Edson F. Adams as executor to locate property belonging to the Prather estate, Attorney Trefethen said the plaintiff had made "allegations of uncertainty and obscurity" and that so far as Samuel Prather was concerned the court had no jurisdiction.

"Samuel Prather denies that he has any property, goods, bonds or chattels in his possession or control, belonging to the estate of Thomas Prather except what have already been delivered to Edson F. Adams," was the substance of the demurrer read by Attorney Trefethen and which sounds the keynote of the initial defense on the part of Samuel Prather, whose attorneys admitted that he had been given possession of certain parts of the estate by his brother before the latter's death.

HEARING IS LENGTHY.

The hearing lasted until late yesterday afternoon and was continued until today noon, when the books of the Merced Stone company were brought into court and further testimony taken.

Further denial as to allegations in petition for citation directed against Samuel D. Prather and Walter Neubert stated that all property in the Stone company was separate property of Samuel Prather, and denied that the estate had any interest stock of the Hayward Bank of Savings, the Bank of Hayward, the Yolo Water and Power company, the Merced River Electric company and other property. Summing up, the defense denied that Samuel Prather had been entrusted with any part of the estate of Thomas Prather since the latter's death.

ramento the girl was returned to the custody of her parents. Mitchell then followed her to Berkeley and pressed his attentions, according to the parents. They objected and on his insisting agreed to pay him back the money he had expended for the celebration. An agreement in writing was drawn up and signed to that effect on June 4 last.

Next followed the suit. While District Attorney Hynes was hearing the story of the Cruz faction last evening the Mitchell faction consulted Deputy District Attorney W. B. Smith, seeking a warrant for the arrest of Cruz on a white slavery charge.

"The Mitchell faction offered to settle the case for a payment of $500," said District Attorney Hynes today. "The case has a peculiar aspect and I am not prepared to say what the outcome will be."

Favors Peace With Good-Sized Navy

BOSTON, June 17.—The biggest "night before" in the history of the Charlestown district preceded the booming of cannon and the ringing of bells in beginning today the celebration of the 138th anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill. Midnight speeches were made by Former President Theodore Roosevelt, Secretary of the Navy Daniels and United States Treasurer John Burke, former governor of North Dakota. Colonel Roosevelt favored a peace policy combined with a big navy.

"I will never," said the Colonel, "consent to arbitrate questions of vital honor and national interests. What is more, I know my countrymen will not consent. Uncle Sam will never arbitrate a slap in the face, and in the last resort the navy is Uncle Sam's punch."

has been empaneled the crowd will be admitted.

When court adjourned last night nine jurors had been sworn. There remained three vacant seats in the box and these were filled by Willis G. Dodd, Henry Cahen and Henry Herbert. Dodd, a manufacturer, residing at 1919 Pirce street, declared that he would not believe the testimonw of the buncomen. He said he would give it no credence whatever and was promptly excused. Henry Cahen declared that he was very friendly with Assistant District Attorney McNut and would rather not serve. He was discharged for that reason.

Henry Herbert, a real estate broker, residing at 369 Eighth street, and Samuel Fulton, retired, of 1600 California street, were sworn to try the case just before the noon adjourn- [illegible] in the box, which it is expected will be filled immediately.

Former Policeman Esola will be one of the first witnesses to testify this afternoon against Detective Sergeant Arthur Macphee and Policeman Chas Taylor, charged with conspiracy. He was brought in from the county jail this morning and after a consultation with Assistant District Attorney Brennan agreed to become a witness at the trial.

"If Esola will repeat some of the things he told me in the district attorney's office this morning we will tie up Mcphee and Taylor tighter than a knot on his testimony alone," said Assistant District Attorney Brennan.

JUDGE DENIES STAY.

Esola's remaining over one day at the request of the prosecution instead of going to the penitentiary this morning as scheduled will necessitate an additional twenty-four hours in Folsom for him. The prosecution intended to get a stay of execution if possible and hold Esola until after the trial of Macphee and Taylor Presiding Judge Dunne, however, would not consent to granting the stay. The law in the case is that a defendant is entitled to begin his term as soon as the commitment papers are made out. These were placed in the hands of Sheriff Eggers yesterday and but for District Attorney Fickert's request Esola would have started to Folsom today.

In the same prison van that brought Esola from the county jail rode Louis Droulette, Jack Sullivan, Charles Josephs and William McHugh. Their felony indictments were on the calendar in Judge Dunne's court where they are answering to a charge of stealing $2100 on September 15, part of the loot the bunco men obtained from John Mineni.

CASE TO BE SET JULY 1.

Attorney Thomas O'Connor agreed with the district attorney for a continuance of the cases until July 1, when they will be set. It is understood that when the second grand larceny charge against Frank Esola in which he is accused of stealing $1000 from Giovanni Vivenzi, is called it will be placed on the reserve calenendar.

Following the sentencing yesterday of Sergeant James McGowan and Policeman Louis Droulette, Jack Sullivan, Charles Josephs and William McHugh events followed one another rapidly. The police commission received resignations from the five convicted officers, which they refused to accept, and ignominiously dismissed them from the department. The board also issued citations for the proprietors of Caeser's, the Jupiter and the Zaza cafes, alleged to have been gathering places of the bunco men and their police confederates, and they will have to show cause before the board why their licenses should not be revoked. At the meeting where this was decided upon Mayor Rolph was in attendance and watched the proceedings with considerable interest. The commission promises to go to the bottom of the bunco graft. Moreover, District Attorney Fickert also says that the scandal will be probed to the bottom and although six policemen are in jail his activities will not cease.

REFUSE TO TAKE STAND.

Despite the fact that the five officers yesterday confessed their guilt openly in Judge Lawlor's court, they assert that they will not turn state's evidence and will not appear as witnesses against Detective Sergeant Arthur Macphee and Policeman Charles Taylor now on trial. It is quite evident, however, that the district attorney intends to call Esola and the other five will have to tell the state whether or not they will answer questions.

Their antipathy against the bunco men was plainly evidenced yesterday when they were about to be placed in the prison van to take the trip from the city prison to the county jail shortly before 5 p. m.

"If we ride together there will be murder," said Droulette. "We won't go in the same van with them. If we do somebody is going to get hurt."

THREATEN VIOLENCE.

This ultimatum caused a delay of nearly an hour, when it was decided that Gallo, De Martini, Du Bois and the others would be taken out of the wagon and later they went out to the jail on the street car.

Gallo and De Martini were closeted with Fickert and his assistant, Jas Brennan, yesterday and claimed that Detective Sergeant Macphee was introduced to them by Esola as the leader of the bunco ring. This new evidence, which is being gathered by the district attorney, is thought to be a preliminary investigation prior to an attempt on the part of the prosecution to obtain felony indictments against Macphee and Taylor from the new grand jury to be empaneled Friday.

Pietro Bruno, one of the owners of the Jupiter cafe, was in consultation with Fickert last night and it is said that he is ready to give additional information incriminating Taylor and Macphee.

Chief of Police White, who may yet be held responsible for the action of his subordinates, has made a statement in which he declares that not only does he not expect to resign, but he believes that he will be reappointed to his present post when his term expires.

MORE SUSPENSIONS IN FRAT WAR ARE ORDERED

Board of Education Votes to Stand Firm in the Matter

DEVELOPMENTS IN FRATERNITY FIGHT

Guy C. Calden, father of a disciplined youth, supports the Board of Education and urges that the fight be continued.

Three boys suspended as pledged to "frats." These are Friedjolf Ericksen, Edward Gordon and Ronald Stuart.

One more expelled as a fraternity member. He is Leland Stearns.

The board votes unanimously to keep up the fight and officially declares that only when all fraternities are disbanded will the disciplined students be reinstated.

Three more pledged members of Greek letter fraternities in the High school were summarily suspended for of the Board of Eeducation, and one boy, actually a member, expelled. The suspended boys were Friedjolf Erickson, Edward Gordon and Ronald Stuart. The expelled youth was Leland Stearns. Young Stearns, although admitting that he is a member of a fraternity, flatly refused to state which one he belongs to.

That no compromise in the fraternity war will be made by the board was the sentiment voiced. The board unanimously voted to keep up the fight and to reinstate no student suspended or expelled until all local chapters of High school fraternities have disbanded. The action of the Pi Delta Koppa and Phi Lambda Epsilon, which offered to surrender their charters if the students were reinstated, was, as in the committee meeting Wednesday, commended, and the boys were informed that by working to secure the disbanding of other organizations they may earn their reinstatement.

Miss Brown suggested, in connection with the fraternity war, that parents of children in grammar schools be warned of the state law in regard to fraternities and its operation.

PLEDGED DURING VACATION.

"It is during the vacations that these grammar school children are pledged to High school organizations," she declared. "The graduates of the grammar schools are looked over, and while they hardly know what they are doing are given pledge pins. This condition is responsible for a great part of the harm. The parents never hear of these things. Let us warn them. If the parents know of the danger of expulsion they will use their efforts to keep the children away from the fraternities."

The fraternity rulings were made last night without a dissenting voice. Despite the storm of Wednesday, when a number of parents appeared before the board, no protests were made last night, the parents realizing that the board is adamant in its intention. Sydney Carlton, Thomas Graves and several other High school fraternity leaders were present, but made no statements.

Strongly supporting the attitude of the board and declaring the parents who participated in Wednesday night's scene wrong, Guy C. Calden, father of one of the suspended students, submitted a letter urging drastic action on the part of the board and that the students be not reinstated until the board's rules are obeyed. His letter follows:

DECLARES PARENTS WRONG.

Board of Education, Oakland, Cal.

Gentlemen: As a father of one of the boys recently suspended from the Oakland High School by your honorable body, I feel constrained to make a brief statement for your consideration.

Wednesday night, I attended the public meeting of your committee and after listening to the remarks made by the members of your committee, the boys and their parents, I was deeply impressed with the fact that some of the parents who spoke were entirely wrong in their attitude toward your committee. In fact, only a few were judicially minded and absolutely fair, but I submit the question:

"What parent can be absolutely impartial when his own boy is involved in trouble?"

I am in total agreement with the Board of Education in this matter, and heartily approve of your effort in stamping the fraternities out of the high school.

HAVE VIOLATED LAWS.

The boys have violated the laws of the State, have pleaded guilty and have been suspended or expelled.

That the boys ought to have been punished for an open violation of the law of the State, the same State that is giving them an education, cannot be questioned.

In my opinion, the situation revolves itself into two very definite propositions, to-wit:

First—The elimination of all fraternities from the Oakland High School, and, second, the reinstatement of all boys who have been either suspended or expelled.

As to the first proposition, the resolution offered by Miss Annie F. Brown at Wednesday night's meeting was fair and just. The resolution in question was passed by your committee in the best of faith, and, I trust, so accepted by the boys. They are the ones who have committed the offense, not the Board of Education, and, in my humble opinion, they are in no position to exact or attempt to dictate terms for immunity with the Board of Education.

SUPPORTS MISS BROWN.

Let the boys, in good faith, endeavor to carry out the suggestion set out in Miss Brown's resolution, and if they do that they can safely rest their case with the board.

As to the second proposition, the reinstatement of all the boys, we parents most respectfully petition your honorable board to reinstate all the boys now suspended or expelled; provided, they use every honorable effort in assisting the board in stamping the fraternities out of the high school. I submit that what these boys need in addition to the discipline which they have already received is more education in good citizenship, and suspension, or more particularly expulsion, will interfere with their general education and not better their citizenship.

GUY C. CALDEN.

WILL NOT GET PAY.

Mrs. Vinnie C. Hicks, head of the child study laboratory, will be granted permission to enter the University of California summer school before the Oakland schools close, but she will not receive pay for this. The board decided this last night on learning that Mrs. Hicks is to attend the school as a teacher and not as a student. The board had some time previously passed a rule that teachers desiring to stury at the summer session may have two weeks' leave of absence, these including the last two weeks of school, with pay. Mrs. Hicks and another teacher in the school depart- [illegible] Hicks inquired if the rule applied to her, suggesting that the prestige gained the school department was valuable and that she would be enabled to pick up many valuable ideas through the teachers with whom she will associate.

"I hardly think we should pay for this," said Director Forrest, "as the teacher will also be paid by the university. I suggest that she be given a leave of absence without pay."

The matter was referred to Superintendent Barker to straighten out. No teacher acting on the faculty at the session will receive pay, but all will be granted leaves of absence.

COURSES SUCCESSFUL.

That the school lecture courses given during the past season were remarkably successful was the statement of Roswell S. Wheeler, principal of the Piedmont school and head of the lecture bureau. Wheeler declared that the affairs were attended, on an average, by 150 people and that several famous speakers had been heard.

"The lectures are better attended in residence districts than in the business center, where theaters and other attractions detract from them," he de- [illegible] hold no more in Chabot Observatory and hold more in schoolhouses about the city. I also suggest that some employe of the school department be appointed to introduce lecturers at these affairs and generally attend to the details.

"The best attendance has been had at the Franklin, Lockwood and Fremont High schools. One lecture a month is the best plan, in each school. We will have a number of especially attractive [illegible] As an education institution, I believe them very valuable."

AIDS CLUB FIGHT.

The Board of Education, on the suggestion of Superintendent Barker, assisted in the fight being made by the Oakland Commercial Club to bring the National Educational Association convention here in 1915. On Barker's recommendation a resolution was passed requesting supterintendents of schools in the state to use their influence in behalf of Oakland, and urging boards of education to send superintendents to the convention that they may aid in the fight. Oakland's candidacy as the convention city is to be made a state fight, if the plans of the Commercial Club are successful. Superintendent Barker is working hand in hand with the club and is serving on several committees in the matter.

The new office of head of the drawing department at the Fremont High school was created last night with the appointment of H. H. Sears to that position. Sears was formerly head of a similar department in the California School of Mechanical Arts in San Francisco. F. Schraidt was appointed head of the department in the Oakland High school.

Because the Zellerbach Paper Company submitted its bid on school supplies, filed last week, in a sample envelope, it was filed with the samples, and a special vote was necessary to take it out and file it with the bids. They will be opened Wednesday, when the school supplies for the year will be contracted for.

TEACHERS ASK LEAVES.

Several resignations and requests for leaves of absence were received from teachers in the department. Miss Daisy Holmes of the domestic science department tendered her resignation. Miss Ellen Gibbs, Miss Dora Jacobs and Miss Eleanor Bennett were granted a year's leave, and Miss Margaret McKenzie and Miss Ella Grove were granted six months' leaves.

MOTT UTTERS D--N WITH VEHEMENCE

Mayor Objects to Making the Water and Infirmary Bond Issues One.

that their interference might jeopardize the whole scheme.

OPPOSES JOINT PROJECT.

The proposed election will cost about $40,000. It is also proposed to call an election to bond the county for about $1,000,000 for a new county infirmary. The Tax Association desired that the two propositions should be voted upon at one time, thereby saving the expense to the taxpayers of the extra election.

Secretary Casey started to explain this to the council this morning, but he did not get very far.

"This plan is very ill advised on the part of the Tax Association," declared Mayor Mott. "We believe that a county infirmary should be built, and we are in favor of it. But the water district matter should not be clouded and jeopardized by being included in the same election. To present a $1,000,000 bond issue project at this time would defeat both projects.

"I feel strongly about this matter. If a dry year comes, heaven help Oakland, for the water is scarce at the best. We have been working and working for this water district, and it would be the worst possible policy to combine infirmary bonds and water district in one election."

"But it would mean getting out more people," interposed Casey.

FEARS CONFUSION.

"Yes, and it would mean that they would confuse the issue and it is hard enough to make the water matter clear," returned Mayor Mott.

"But it would save $40,000 to the people," said Casey.

"D——n the $40,000!" broke in the mayor. "The $40,000 doesn't amount to a hill of beans when compared with the importance of this water district project. If you have the best interest of the community at heart you should advise the supervisors not to jeopardize this water district public ownership plan with a bond issue for a county infirmary. I've had more experience in these matters than you have and know more about them."

ROOSEVELT CHARGES BUNKER HILL AMID FLASHLIGHT FIRE

BOSTON, Mass., June 17.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt charged up Bunker Hill today leading a brass band and a big crowd of "Bunker Hill day" celebrators in the face of a battery of flashlights. When the flashlights went off several women screamed, crying:

"He's shot! He's shot!" and caused considerable excitement for a moment. The colonel waved his hand toward them and shouted back:

"It's only a miss. I've faced worse than that."

Colonel Roosevelt officially opened the 138th celebration of the famous battle with a patriotic speech at an outing club in Charlestown at midnight and then at the base of the monument spoke for another ten minutes.

OAKLANDERS MAKE VIVID IMPRESSION AT PORTLAND

Alameda Metropolis Gets Extraordinary 'Boost' Through Royal Oaks' Visit

A. S. Lavenson, vice-president of the H. C. Capwell Company, and one of the Oakland Commercial Club members who helped to put Oakland where she belongs on the map during the Portland rose festival, believes that the northern journey and the impressions made by the Royal Oaks on their hosts in the Oregon metropolis, were worth more thousands of dollars than can be easily computed without an adding machine.

Lavenson declares that people who have heretofore looked upon Oakland as being "across the bay" now know that the city is a definite, aggressive, up-and-going entity that demands recognition. He deplores the fact that there has been a tendency to decry the Royal Oaks' trip as one in which revelry and pleasure were the only purposes.

"In Portland they called us 'the bunch that put O. K. in Oakland,' and then the Rosarians and the citizens of their city O. K.'d us," said Lavenson. "Either the people of Portland are the greatest jolliers and the Royal Oak crowd the most gullible of mortals, or we are the best people on the earth. That's what they told us, and then they proved their belief by a hospitality that was as varied as it was wonderful.

SAN FRANCISCO "BEATEN."

"It is impossible to frame a statement that will carry a sufficient punch to the lukewarmness of our business men who frowned on the Rose Festival trip as a junket that was all pleasure and wholly without profit. As a municipal advertising exploit we were told it excelled anything ever put over in the Northwest. 'You have put Oakland on the map,' was the constantly recurring compliment. I met one of San Francisco's leading business men in Portland, and after declaring that we certainly had Portland saturated with Oakland thought, he added: 'You have beaten San Francisco. Our people have been asleep.'

"Even the festival committees and officials toasted us as the delegation that put the 'joy' in the joyousness of the eternal debtor,' said C. C. Chapman, general chairman of the Rose Festival committee. 'Your enthusiasm and good spirits and that splendid band of youngsters you brought with you have bred the carnival joyousness in all of our guests, and I am sorry to say that it was the needed ingredient to start some of our own people into appreciation of what they ought to do. 'You have made Poortland your carnival.'

BAND APPRECIATED.

"One reason for our rousing reception and entertainment was the good opinion gained of us when the Rosarians weer our guests.

"The boys' band reflected glory on the Royal Oaks, because of their willingness to do anything and go anywhere at the suggestion of the Oaks or of the carnival committee, and because the members of the band were the finest behaved bunch of youngsters ever assembled. Their heads were not turned with all the praise they received and their willingness to help never flagged. Moreover, their presence was the best sort of advertising for Oakland. The people were astonished that we had such an organization, and were sincere in their amazement when we told them that the entire band now aggregated 125, and that it would total 1000 player from the public schools when the exposition opened in 1915.

TO VISIT PASADENA.

"Out of our meeting and fraternizing with the Knights of the Tournament of Pasadena grew a friendship that will link the two cities so closely together that in all matters concerning the general good of the Pacific slope we will be as one community. The Tillicums of Seattle extended the heartiest invitations to us to come to their city in a body or individually. And, of course, the Rosarians were brothers. The Pasadenans invited us to the next rose tournament in January, 1914, and we are going there with a strong delegation.

"At a luncheon to the Rosarians and [illegible] the Royal Oaks Fred Reed put out as emanating from Oakland the "Hands [illegible]" and [illegible] slogan, and its reception was enthusiastic and the pledges made to support and develop the spirit were sincere and will be kept. Reed conceived the banquet and is entitled to the credit of its success. The presentation to the Rosarians of Alameda-county rosebushes at the luncheon was a pretty bit of sentiment, though not so impressive in simple dignity and seriousness as was the planting of the Oakland oak sapling. No ceremony commemorating great men or great deeds could have been more solemnly beautiful than when Rosarians and Royal Oaks stood with bared heads as the first spadeful of sod was turned for the reception in Oregon soil of the Oakland pledge of brotherhood.

LABEL IS PASSPORT.

"The 'My City, Oakland,' armband was a passport to the hearts of the people after the first day. I believe they found out then that we were what the Rosarians had certified us to be, and there was no limit to hospitality. Some of the Oaks told me that even the street car conductors refused to accept fare and I know that when we left we were bidden godspeed with expressions of regret by everyone with whom we came in contact, from President E. B. Piper of the Commercial Club, to the bellboys in the Hotel Oregon, where we had our headquarters.

"The exhibit sent to Portland by the Alameda County Exposition Commission attracted the attention of the more than 100,000 visitors during the week. W. D. Nichols and members of the Oaks were kept busy answering questions about our resources and opportunities. The drill team which won first prize was the result of the earnest efforts of Captain J. C. Mielke in Oakland and Captain Leslie F. Rice, who commanded us. The first honor which went to the boys' band was a unanimous verdict from judges and guests. The automobile designed and decorated by Fred Seulberger with Oakland flowers, was beautiful beyond description. T. L. Richardson and the Southern Pacific we were indebted for the finest special train ever provided for such a trip. In Roseburg Oakland, Eugune and Salem, Ore., we were splendidly entertained. At Oakland 95 per cent of the population met us at the depot. They deserve the name with which they have christened teir infant city.

"THE TRIBUNE sent bundles of papers to us daily, to remind us that though we were absent we were not forgotten.

OAKLAND IN THE NEWS.

"But the thought that should dominate is the fact that we secured publicity for Oakland, the bay section and for California that could not be bought for any money. The Oregonian is probably the most conservative newspaper on the coast and when Oakland stories appeared in one issue on every page except the market page seasoned publicity experts sat up and gasped. And it was not due to 'pull,' but to the activities of the Royal Oaks which made news of sufficient importance to be chronicled.

"Oakland must have its annual festival to which we can invite the Rosarians, the Radiators of Eugene, the Tillicums, the Knights of the Tournament and the rest of the community builders of the Pacific Coast. It is by this united effort, this fraternal feeling which is the outgrowth of interchanges of visits that will give eventually to the Pacific Coast the pre-eminence it so richly deserves as the commercial, residence and industrial paradise of an entire nation.

"If the business men of Oakland wish to follow up the immense advantages gained in this Portland trip they must be prepared to expend money and energy without stint and work together, sinking out of sight all petty rivalries and all smaller considerations. The publicity given to Oakland at the great Portland carnival could not have been purchased for an enormous amount of money. So far as we and our city's interests are concerned, it is priceless, and it is our business to spare no expense, to neglect no opportunity, to live up to the splendid impression made at the Rose Festival by our townsmen."

PREDICTS SECOND COMING

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 17.—That Christ's second coming will occur in this generation was the prophecy made by Elmer G. W. Wells, president of the Minnesota Seventh Day Adventists, now in session here.

VETERANS BACK FROM NEVADA

Encampment at Reno Voted Complete Success by Old Soldiers.

Many members of the local G. A. R. and Women's Relief Corps have returned from Reno, where the annual encampment of the Department of California and Nevada was held. Reports of a very successful business session are current and the showing made by the Oakland camp was the cause of much favorable comment.

Nevada hospitality is being praised by the returning veterans, everyone in the Silver State doing something to add to the old soldiers' pleasure. Especially in Virginia City was this so, the people on the old Comstock turning out en masse to welcome the "boys in blue," and keeping up the welcome all day long. Every place of business was closed in honor of the visitors, and fireworks, cannons and hearty cheers greeted them on their arrival.

Accompanying the veterans on their trip to the Comstock were Governor Oddie and Lieutenant Governor Ross. Besides Judge Frank P. Langan of the First Judicial District of Nevada, gave an address of welcome in which he expressed with fitting phraseology the sentiment felt by the "battle-born" state for the men who had stood on the blood-swept fields to save one of the dearest things on earth—liberty and the union.

Banquets, visits to the mines on the old lode, and other means of entertainment were resorted to, and before long everyone felt very much at home in the old Nevada [illegible]

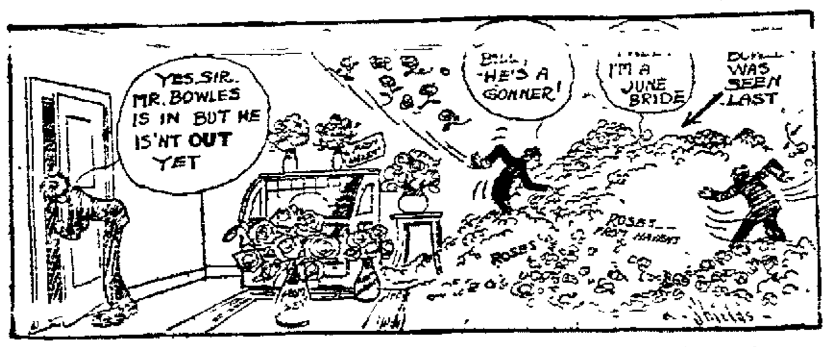
MERRY FLOWER BATTLE IS ON

BOWLES AND HAVENS ARE RIVALS

AND the war of the roses continues.

Who raises the most beautiful flowers in California? It's either Wickham Havens or Philip E. Bowles. Both men admit that. The point of variance is that each man says that of the two he is the one that "delivers the goods." Consequently each man's desk has been looking like a flower garden every day, both sending bouquets to the other. Havens is away on a trip for a few days, and Bowles is seriously considering, says his associates, sending flowers after him.

It would be a strong point in his argument that he has the best flowers, laughingly stated the banker to one of his friends, for Havens to find Bowles' blossoms in his soup tureen, for instance, or perhaps beside his napkin in a far-away place. Havens, say his friends and associates, has still more flowers to renew the war when he returns. The Havens gardens are just now at their best, and each day sees a fresh profusion of blossoms. So is it also with Bowles.' Both men declare that there are more where those on the desks came from, and the shears keep up their merry music.



Friends of the two capitalists have organized to urge a commission or jury to judge the flowers. It has been suggested that a penalty of some kind be imposed, final judgment be made, and the winner declared grower of the best roses in California. The next step will be to challenge Portland, and, perhaps, establish "My City, Oakland," in its proper place on the rose-growing map. In the meantime the battle is on.

Caught Fast in Tidegate, Lad Faces Death 4 Hours

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 17.—John Goglik, aged 16, stared death in the face for four hours last night in an unusual battle with the swift incoming tide in West river. While swimming, his leg was caught in one of the great tide gates that prevent the water from overflowing the meadows and efforts to release him were unavailing. The fire and police departments were called out and a large crowd gathered. A rubber tube was inserted in the boy's mouth as the water passed over his head, so that he might breathe.

A trolley wrecker succeeded in smashing one of the tide gates, allowing the water to rush over the meadows, so that the boy's head again was out of water. Then the gate was forced enough to release the leg. Goglik collapsed after being rescued.

'Bridgie' Webber, Victim of Stabbing, Leaves Hospital

NEW YORK, June 17. — "Bridgie" Webber, a witness against former Police Lieutenant Charles Becker, the convicted instigator of the murder of Herman Rosenthal, was able today to leave the hospital, where he has been since early Saturday morning, when he was stabbed in the back under mysterious circumstances. Fears that the knife used might have been poisoned were groundless and it is believed there is no further danger of complications. Webber has steadfastly refused to tell anything more of the stabbing than that it was some unknown "kid" who attacked him on the street just after he had left a party at Sam Paul's East Side restaurant

Miss Donna Dennis Named First Woman County Treasurer

German Empress Too Worn to Participate

BERLIN, June 17. — The Empress Augusta Victoria was too tired to participate in today's celebration of the completion of the 25th year of her husband's reign. The gala events of the last few days, following the wedding of her only daughter, proved too much for her strength and she was forced to leave the Imperial box at the opera in the middle of last evening's performances. The Crown Princess will represent her Majesty at tonight's state dinner.

SUFFRAGETTES ARE PRONOUNCED GUILTY

Six Leaders of Militants and One Man Are Convicted

LONDON, June 17.—Six of the most prominent leaders of the militant suffragettes' organization and one of their male supporters were today found guilty at the Central Criminal Court of conspiracy to commit malicious damage to property. The trial has lasted several days.

The women were officials of the Women's Social and Political Union, while the man was Edwin Clayton, an analytical chemist. The jury handed in a recommendation for mercy in the case of Miss Lake, Miss Lennox and Miss Barrett.

The sentences imposed on the militant suffragettes were:

Miss Annie Kenney, 18 minths; Mrs. Beatrice Saunders, 15 months; Miss Harriet Korr, 12 months; Miss Rachel Barrett, 9 months; Miss Agnes Lake and Miss Laura Lennox, 6 months each; Edwin Clayton, 20 months.

All the prisoners were committed to the third division, which entails hard labor.

Each defendant was ordered to pay one-seventh of the costs of the prosecution and was bound over to keep the peace for a year after the period of imprisonment.

With the exception of Mrs Saunders all the women loudly proclaimed their intention of going on a "hunger strike."

fund in a new bond issue in order to cancel the old bond.

PORTION ALREADY VOTED.

In addition to this it is probable that the council will favor including six to seven hundred thousand dollars for the completion of the new city hall. This would bring the proposed new bond issue to close to $3,000,000, but the major portion of this would be composed of bonds substituted for those which have already been voted by the people.

At the session this morning the contractors were represented in the conference by Berdstrom, of Lange and Berdstrom and McLaren of the firm of McLaren and Peterson, and by a number of other firms. The session wts attended by the mayor, Assistant City Attorney Beardsley, Commissioner [illegible] missioners. A letter signed by the following contractors who have worked on the schools designated placing the matter before the council was read:

Lang & Bergstrom—Longfellow and Emerson schools

Moore & Burlingame—Washington school

Boyd, Kerr & McLean—Fifty-fourth and Market street school.

O. [illegible] & Son—College avenue school and Park Division school.

William Brothers & Henderson—[illegible]

Van Sant, Houghton & Company—Perry Street school.

STRINGENCY RESPONSIBLE.

"The situation is one that could not have been anticipated and is a very grave one," said Mayor Mott, following the conference today "About the time these bonds were issued we could have disposed of the entire issue at par, but had we done so, only to let the money lie idle until needed in the course of construction of the schools, we should have incurred just criticism as we could not have received from the bank a rate of interest equal to that allowed in the bonds We htd pursued this course on many occasions of holding back from sale those bonds the money for which was not needed for the time being, and no difficulty has ever been experienced before in disposing of 4½ per cent bonds of this city, as Oakland's credit is of the highest among bond buyers The present stringency, however, presents a situation which we must face, and it would seem that the proposed plan to cancel unsold bonds and vote a new issue at a higher interest, is the only possible solution to the difficulty. We cannot permit this work on the school buildings, the auditorium and the city hall to halt without a very grave loss to the city and it is almost unthinkable that the citizens would permit such a thing I believe that if the matter is properly explained, we will have the absolute backing of the residents of Oakland, of all our commercial and civic bodies for the proposition as presented."

NO TROUBLE, SAY CONTRACTORS.

The San Francisco and Oakland contractors engaged in erecting the various Oakland school buildings now under course of construction held their meeting last night at the headquarters of the General Contracthors' Association in the Sharon building to discuss the situation which has resulted in the stopping of work on the buildings The contractors state that there is no trouble or misunderstanding of any sort with the city officials, as rumored, and that the only reason for the work being stopped is that they cannot go on with it until the city obtains the necessary funds, by the sale of additional bonds, to pay for the work as it is done The schools were to be paid for from the proceeds of a special bond issue, but at present the sale of bonds has stopped and the money on hand has been exhausted

SUB-CONTRACTORS ACT.

About [illegible] hundred of the sub-contractors and material-men interested in the buildings were present, and it was the unanimous sense of the meeting that Oakland would soon find it possible to raise the necessary funds and go on with the work The following resolution was unanimously adopted as showing the attitude of the sub-contractors and material men toward the general contractors and the city itself:

"Whereas, the contractors working on the Oakland school buildings have been compelled to stop work on account of the funds in the treasury being insufficient for the payment of the amounts due on the buildings,

"Resolved, that this meeting of the sub-contractors and material-men interested in said buildings indorse the stand of the general contractors in the matter, and request the contractors to apoint a committee to confer with the commercial and civic organizations of Oakland concerning the best means of raising the necessary funds."

H. W. WATROUS SHOOTS AND KILLS BURGLAR

LAKE GEORGE, N. Y., June 17.—Frank Cardinal of Hudson Falls died in a hospital from a bullet wound received early yesterday in the home on Lake George of Henry W. Watrous, a well known New York artist, which he was trying to rob. A brother, Joseph Cardinal, who is alleged to have been in the Watrous home at the time of the shooting, but to have escaped, was arrested

Early yesterday morning Mrs. Watrous was awakened by a noise in the dining-room. She aroused her husband, who crept downstairs and entered the dining-room with a flashlight in one hand and a revolver in the other. As he flashed the light Frank Cardinal, it is said, sprang at him. Watrous fired, mortally wounding the man

Mr. Watrous is secretary of the National Academy and is one of the best known of American genre painters He is a native of California.

EASTERNER IS FOUND WANDERING; TRIES SUICIDE

LOS ANGELES, June 17.—An elderly man, believed to be Louis Miller, a wealthy eastern visitor to Southern California, was taken to the county hospital here today after he tried to kill himself three times while suffering from loss of memory.

The man was found wandering on the car tracks between Los Angeles and Pasadena His hat, coat and vest were gone but the remainder of his garments were of fine quality and his hands were kept well. There was nothing to indicate his identity except his continual murmuring of the name "Louis Miller."

Electric railway motormen reported that he had tr'ed to throw himself under three moving cars.

AWARD CONTRACT FOR STREET LIGHT

Pacific Gas & Electric Company to Purvey for Year 1913-'14.

Contract was awarded for street lighting for the fiscal year 1913-1914 to the Pacific Gas and Electric Company by the city council this morning on the recommendation of Commissioner of Public Health and Safety F. C. Turner. The rates are the same as those in the schedule for the current fiscal year.

The Pacific Gas and Electric Company was the only bidder, although specifications for the contract were arranged, particularly so that the Great Western Power Company and Central Oakland Light and Power Company might have an opportunity to bid on a competitive basis.

Protests signed by 359 residents of the annexed district [illegible] the city council this morning complaining that street lights have not been burning regularly in the district for the past month. The protests called upon the city council to take some action in the matter.

Commissioner of Public Works Turner explained that the council could do nothing [illegible] of the present conditions

"There are sixty square miles covered by this company with a network of wires," said Turner "We have sixty patrolman in the district, or one man to each square mile It is impossible for them to protect the lines of the company, and the wires are being constantly cut and the service interfered with. We will protect life and property as far as we are able, but that is the best we can do."

CONCERN LEASES BIG WAREHOUSE

Structure at Webster Street Wharf Taken by Produce Firm.

Among the important real estate deals of the month is the ten year lease of a large warehouse now undergoing construction on the Webster street wharf. The Webster Street Whaf Company, the builders of the structure, have leased it to Hunt-Hatch Company, commission merchants and an early occupation of the place is contemplated.

The warehouse, which is 365 feet long by 55 wide, will be used by the commission men as an extra storing place for their produce that comes from the valleys by the steamer routes. The present quarters of the firm on the wharf are much too small for the volume of business being done and this enlargement will do much to erase the congestion that has resulted. The estimated cost of the structure is $25,000.

Boy Nearly Hung By Broken Cable

LOS ANGELES, June 17.—Ray T. Krueger, 16 years old, was nearly killed here today when he was hanged by an elevator cable.

He was working near an elevator in a lithographic establishment when the cable snapped. The iron chain wrapped itself about the boy's neck and he was hoisted many feet in the air before his weight freed him from the embrace of the cable. He was taken to the receiving hospital where it was said he was suffering from a basal fracture of the skull caused by the force with which the cable wrapped itself about his neck.

Payne, a lineman for the Great Western Power Company on the complaint of E. G. McCann an employe of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, and the arrest of Cyrus Hiester of 1909 Parker street, Berkeley, a foreman for the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, on the complaint of C. B. Mateer, sales manager for the Great Western Power Company Patrolmen Shannon and Mulholland took a hand and assisted in the arersts Charges of battery were filed. The cases were continued until tomorrow for the filing of complaints.

PENNIES FOUND ON BURGLAR IDENTIFIED

SAN FRANCISCO, June 17.—Two Lincoln pennies and an additional copper found in the pocket of Michael Rowe, the burglar shot by Patrolman Justus, were identified this morning as being the property of "Codfish" George, a character frequenting Ahern's saloon, Sixteenth and Folsom streets. George missed the pennies and believed they were taken by Rowe. Today Officer Justus confirmed the fact and declares that besides being a burglar Rowe was a pickpocket. He had also previously been arrested for having burglar's tools in his possession.

S. P. TO SELL NOTES VALUED AT $30,000,000

NEW YORK, June 17. — The Southern Pacific directors, at a special meeting yesterday, approved plans for the sale of probably $30,000,000 of notes to local bankers. While the amount is not definitely known, this was the total of the note issue, permission for which was obtained from the California commission.

Later, however, the Arizona commission raised some objection to the issue as originally proposed, and arrangements have been made for a distinct issue to finance the company's needs. The notes will probably be sold to the Central Trust Company.

Rector Suggests Two School Courses for Weak Parents

EDITOR TRIBUNE: As a citizen of Oakland, earnestly desiring that our children may be taught the sacredness of law and of their own word, let me thank you for your editorial in today's issue in reference to the high school fraternity difficulty.

It is a shameful thing that the highly respected members of our school department should be bullied and abused by the parents of those for whom they are laboring with much sacrifice of time and with great personal interest. Where are we tending when such things can happen? As you wisely point out, the law must be enforced, and if the members of the board fail to do so they would be unfit for their office. The attempt of parents to prevent their doing this primary duty cannot be too strongly condemned.

My experience has shown that in the majority of cases when those in authority have trouble of a serious nature with children it was traceable to the weakness of their parents. In view of this experience and of what has happened in the past two years in connection with this fraternity matter, might it not be wise to add to the present curriculum two courses for deficient parents: One in primary ethics and one in elementary logic?

ELIMINATE CAUSE OF HOG CHOLERA

That is Aim of Uncle Sam in Fighting Destructive Disease.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Convinced in the face of the increased cost of living, that something must be done to save the hog as a food animal, experts of the department of agriculture announced today that they would begin a campaign July 1 to eradicate hog cholera. On that date the $75,000 appropriated by the last congress for the work will become available.

The losses in hogs which succumbed to cholera last year were $50,000,000, according to the department's figures. Previously the department conducted experiments by which it developed a serum that was a specific in cholera epidemic but now it proposes to go to the rest of the trouble and eliminate the cause.

"Because of the short supply and high prices of meats," says the department in its statement today, "it is becoming imperative that something should be done to check the ravages of this disease."

MARQUIS DIES; SON TO WED

EARL TO KEEP HIS PLEDGE?

VIOLET MOSS, WHOSE BREACH OF PROMISE SUIT MAY BE ENDED BY DEATH OF MARQUIS.

LONDON, June 17.—Behind an action, entered in the High Court here as "Moss vs. Compton, action for breach of promise to carry," is a romantic story which may throw some light on the sudden death announced today from Italy of the Marquis of Northampton, head of one of the highest and wealthiest families in England.

The defendant in the action, which is down for a hearing before a special jury, is the Earl of Compton, eldest son and heir of the dead marquis, who is being sued for breach of promise to marry the fascinating musical comedy actress, Violet Moss.

Some months ago the earl was introduced to Miss Moss, a pretty girl, about 20 years of age, while she was filling an engagement at a London theater.

It was a case of love at first sight on both sides, and for a time the young lovers kept their secret closely. The thunderbolt fell when the earl acquainted his father of his love for the actress and expressed his intention to wed her.

The marquis was furious, turned a deaf ear to his son's entreaties and sternly forbade him to think of such an alliance. He finally ordered the earl never to see the girl again. All members of the marquis' family supported this decision.

Under constant and heavy parental pressure, although vowing his love, the earl broke away. Then came the unexpected sequel.

Hoping, it is said, to force the hand of the marquis, the discarded actress started proceedings against the earl for breach of promise. The marquis offered a huge settlement, but the girl wanted her lover, and refused to listen.

The late marquis left London last Friday only, following a breakdown which affected his heart, and he traveled alone to Italy, where he died soon after his arrival.

Sells Chiffon, Though Rich

LOS ANGELES, June 17.—Forgetful of great wealth, of high social standing in Chicago, New York and Washington, and completely ignoring her club and suffrage affiliations, Miss Florence Lord, graduate of Smith college and society girl in Chicago, in a search after the truth concerning sociological conditions, has been engaged in selling chiffon over the counter of a local department store for the past week.

Having thrown off her obscurity on drawing her last pay check, Miss Lord yesterday notified her society friends that she was in the city, and at once was showered with attentions and entertainments. But she declares that she may take a second position in a Los Angeles store before going on to other fields.

"I cannot say much," she declared yesterday, "but I will state that I am most favorably impressed with the opportunity offered the young working woman in Los Angeles if she is willing to work and to use her brains as well as her hands.

"I have not a standard of comparison because I did not work in the eastern cities, but I shall do it before I stop, and when I finish my experiments I shall publish them all. I want to say that my employers were awfully 'white' to me and I would have earned a really good salary if I had remained."

Likes Noise; But Ragging—

SAN FRANCISCO, June 17.—Thirty-two years' service in the Italian army, during which he figured in many heated engagements and heard the bullets and shells whistle ominously close to his ears, has not inured Col. G. B. Luciano to the cacophony which results when an up-to-the-minute rag party is in session. The colonel arrived here yesterday on a globe-circling tour on the liner Manchuria, and his fellow travelers were telling how his plaints had completely disorganized the social life of the ship in the last days of the voyage across the Pacific.

It was Colonel Luciano's "grouch," declare passengers, that resulted in Captain Andrew Dixon issuing an edict that there be no more merry, merry midnight gatherings in the social hall. The protests of the veteran Italian army officer were responsible for a damper being placed on the social event held a few nights before the Manchuria reached the Golden Gate, at which Mrs. Howard E. Slack, wife of a Standard Oil official, and Miss Marvin Hammock, a Sacramento girl, were the hosts. Captain Dixon didn't put anybody in the brig or clang the irons, but he gave it to be understood that the gallant colonel's slumbers were no longer to be disturbed by sounds of levity and ripples of gay feminine laughter after the hour of six bells.

Wage Battle of Affidavis

NAPA, June 17.—A war of affidavits was waged in the Superior Court here yesterday afternoon in regard to motion of the defence in the case of Mrs. Mazie Taylor, society woman, charged with forgery, to have the case dismissed.

The defense claimed the indictment found in 1908 cannot be prosecuted now, owing to the lapse of time. The prosecution yesterday produced affidavits of former District Attorney F. M. Silva, Sheriff Ed Kelton and former Sheriff D. A. Dunlap that they believed Mrs. Taylor out of California until a month ago, when her presence in San Diego was made known to Kelton. Mrs. Taylor testified yesterday that she had been residing in San Diego for the last three years. More affidavits will be presented on Friday.

Three months ago she disappeared from St. Petersburg. Her husband, an officer in the czar's own imperial cavalry, was able to set in motion the secret service of the Russian government, but the young princess was able to escape the vigilance of the Russian agents until a month ago, when she appealed for funds to the Russian embassy in Washington.

AVIATOR DROPS INTO BAY; IS MAROONED

SAN FRANCISCO, June 17. — Silas Cristofferson, the aviator, got a drenching last night about 6 o'clock while flying over the bay. Near Alcatraz he encountered trouble with the engines of the machine and with his craft was plunged into the bay, a short distance from the dock on the north side of the island. He made his way to the dock before help could reach him and later secured aid in towing his air craft to land.

Captain McHarry of Crowley's launch No. 3 saw the accident and offered to take both the aviator and his aeroplane back to San Francisco. Christofferson preferred to remain over night on the island.

MRS. M. A. EASTLAND ASKS $500,000 ALIMONY

San Francisco Society Leader Alleges Destitution in Divorce Complaint.

Says Her Husband Receives Monthly Income of $5000 from Estate.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., June 17. — Five hundred thousand dollars, or about a ton of gold, is asked by Mrs. Mary A. Eastland of Coronado, recently of San Francisco, as alimony in the divorce suit she has just filed here against Joseph Lander Eastland.

Mrs. Eastland took up her residence in Coronado last January after a two years' European wedding tour. In the divorce complaint Mrs. Eastland charged her husband with intemperance. In basing her claim for alimony the complaint alleges that she is destitute and without any means of support. She states that her husband receives an income of $5000 per month from the estate of his father and from business investments.

Mrs. Eastland left for the north last week. Before her departure she is reported to have said that her marriage spoiled a beautiful friendship that had existed for many years. The two attended school in Marin county and their marriage, which was a runaway match, was performed in Chicago.

THIS IS WHY.

LOS ANGELES, June 17.—"I hope to restore, through divorce, the beautiful friendship which my husband and I lost in marriage. That is why I am suing him now."

This is the explanation given today by Mrs. Joseph Lander Eastland, society leader in San Francisco and wife of the millionaire Venezuelan consul in that city, for her suit for divorce and $500,000 filed in San Diego.

Mr. and Mrs. Eastland were married two years ago in Chicago, going at once to Paris to live. Last October they returned to California, he to his clubs in San Francisco and she to a bungalow at Coronado.

After waiting since October for signs of the beautiful friendship, Mrs. Eastland decided to try the experiment of a divorce action, though she, in her suite in the Alexandria hotel, declared she did not believe in divorce, except in extreme cases.

"I am suing on the grounds of incompatibility," she said. "Isn't it sad, when before marriage that was the last word that could be applied to us? We had been such beautiful friends for so many years that marriage seemed the ideal outcome.

"Well, we married, and found that love does not spring from friendship—that we were only friends and not sweethearts.

"I think two persons might marry from love and develop friendship, but I now believe they cannot reverse the order with success.

"And so, after trying for two years to catch the elusive happiness of marriage, I have sued for divorce."

"So marriage entirely spoiled your friendship?" she was asked.

"Oh, I hope not entirely. I hope, when we have shaken the handicaps of marriage, we can again be the good friends we were. We were such good friends, and we made a mistake to marry. Why won't unmarrying rectify the mistake and make us good friends again?"

"I don't think I shall stay single all my life," she continued. "I love all that a home means and probably I shall marry again, but whether I do or not, I always want to be friends with Mr. Eastland."

SAYS SOCIETY FOSTERS WRIGGLY ANIMAL DANCE

CHICAGO, June 17.—Public dance halls are not in as much need of censorship as private dancing parties and hops, according to the United Professional Teachers of Dancing, in session here.

The dancing teachers decided to ask the city council in all cities represented to pass the one-half-foot dance distance ordinance and censor dancing the same as plays, moving picture films and postal cards.

"All these animal dances are taught in the private clubs," said M. F. Braun of Pittsburg, a member of the advisory board. "Until these are censored, the turkey trot and the bunny hug will give us trouble."

J. Louis Guyon, president of the association, asserted that the people who are supposed to be in society dance these objectionable dances and added:

"The dance of the masses is all right."

STRANDED STEAMSHIP YOUKON HOPELESS WRECK

SEATTLE, Wash., June 17.—Wireless information received yesterday by the Alaska Coast Company from Archie McKay at Unalaska, gives the first details of the stranding of the steamship Yukon on the reefs of Sannak Island, while bound from Goodnews Bay, Bering Sea, for Seattle, and advises the company that there is no hope of saving the vessel.

With the exception of the four men standing by the wreck, the officers and passengers of the Yukon will be brought to Seattle on the steamship Victoria, which is expected here next Monday.

STREET RAILWAY RAISES WAGES OF EMPLOYES

PHILADELPHIA, June 17.—More than 7000 motormen and conductors employed by the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company will receive another wage increase, the second in two months, on July 1, instead of September 1, as announced some time ago. The new scale provides a maximum wage of 29 cents an hour for men who have been in the employ of the company for five years and over, while new men receive 24 cents, with one cent additional for each year of service. In June, 1911, following the strike of 1910, the maximum wage was 22 cents an hour. The increase has come through the setting apart of a certain percentage of the company's income.

'HANKY PANKY' IS JOLLY JUMBLE

Everything That's Entertaining Seems to Have Been Put Into Show.

Pretty girls, brilliant lights and costumes, sparkling music and comedy ad lib, all mixed in a hodge-podge, make "Hanky Panky," which opened at the Macdonough theater last night.

"Hanky Panky" is, and that's about all there is to it. It roams from London to the University of Chicago campus, in plot, and consists principally of laughs and music. It is billed as a "jumble of jollification" and that is the name that can be applied.

The feature of the performance, as far as Oakland is concerned, was the return of Christine Nielsen, former Oakland girl, and now a star of the first magnitude, who was seen here last night for the first time in several years. Miss Nielsen was given an ovation on her first appearance. Bobby North, Flo May, Max Rogers, William Montgomery, Florence Moore, Harry Cooper and several others well known in musical comedy, cast.

Miss Nielsen's voice has improved wonderfully since her last appearance here, when she was practically a school girl. It is fuller and richer and the actress herself has acquired that charm which comes only with experience. Florence Moore scored heavily with her numbers. The piece will run tonight and tomorrow, with matinee tomorrow.

UNDERWOOD URGES TO CONSERVATISM

Would Guard Against Hasty Adoption of Ill-Advised Proposals.

CHARLOTTEVILLE, Va., June 17. — A plea for conservatism in politics, a "stop, look, listen" policy to guard against hasty adoption of ill-considered proposals, was the keynote of an address on "The Tendency of Our Times," delivered at the University of Virginia today by Representative Oscar W. Underwood of Alabama, Democratic leader of the House of Representatives.

Representative Underwood said the adoption of two amendments to the constitution within the past year clearly demonstrated that there is a strong sentiment in the country to break away from the fixed standards that have controlled the government in the past and that an onward movement is leading to the adjustment of national life to new conditions and progressive ideals.

"No man," he added, "is so bold as to declare that the recent constitutional changes are not in the interest of better government of the whole people and that they have not equalized and strengthened our system.

DANGER IN HASTE.

"The danger that confronts us in the forward march of the nation comes from the hasty adoption of ill-considered proposals, sometimes coming from honest, but ill-advised advocates of real progress and as often coming from the cunning hirelings of reactionary interests, who would, under the name of progress, start a false movement to mislead and confuse in the hope that they may delay the day when special privilege shall be divorced from our economic and governmental system. We should move forward with conservatism that will avoid a reaction in public sentiment and abandon a radical onrush that may lead to disaster or lay the accomplishment of a good result."

LATEST NEWS FROM OUTSIDE TOWNS

NO LICENSE VOTE IS BEING TAKEN

'Wets' and 'Drys' Contesting at Polls at San Leandro Election.

SAN LEANDRO, June 17. — Whether San Leandro will remain licensed or go "dry" will be decided this evening when the result of the no-license election will be made known. From the time of the opening of the polling booths in the three precincts this morning, the stream of voters came in from all districts, and a large vote was polled by noon. The town is deeply interested in today's election, and it is generally recognized that the issue at stake is a big one. Every one of the 1680 voters on the register is expected to record his vote, and public in- [illegible] hardly any "whipping up" of electors is required.

The three precincts in different parts of the town were surrounded by an excited throng and the result of the no-license fight discussed. The authorities took measures to prevent any disturbance, and both Marshal Joseph Peralta and Constable Samuel Borge had a staff of deputies in readiness to quell a too-heated argument. But although feeling ran high, the supporters of the rival factions [illegible] the peaceful conduct of the election. That the electors might visit the polls without interference, deputy guardians of law and order were posted throughout the crowds. Although the precincts were cut down this election from five to three to reduce the expenses of the election, little if any inconvenience was experienced in handling the large registration.

W. C. T. U. SERVES LUNCH.

Prominent members of both factions were busy throughout the day, superintending the efforts of their workers. The Women's Temperance Union opened a center for their workers, and here was served coffee, cake and other refreshments.

The final rallies of the "wets" and the "drys" last night brought out large crowds. A. S. Ruth of Olympia, Washington, addressed a meeting of the "wets" on the town plaza, while Frank J. Matthews addressed the gathering in Portuguese in support of the saloon interests. Dr. A. C. Bane of the California Anti-Saloon League was the principal speaker for the "drys" in the Best Theater, the meeting being presided over by Mrs S. M. M. Woodman, president of the Women's Christian Temperance Union. Musical selections were given by bands at each of the meetings.

Keen interest is manifested in the bay cities over the result of the no-license election in San Leandro. There are 20 saloons in the town, and on the occasion of previous no-license elections the attempts of the temperance forces to close the saloons have failed.

ALUMNI TO WORK FOR SCHOLARSHIPS

Graduates of Oakland High School Plan a Big Campaign.

To increase the number of scholarships presented each year at the Oakland High school to deserving students, the Alumni Association, composed of the local High school's graduates, is about to start an active campaign to increase the scholarship fund.

The following is a copy of a letter written by Principal Keyes to the officers and members of the Oakland High School Alumni Association.

"Dear Friends: I wish to call to your attention the urgent need for increasing the number of scholarships for the Oakland High school.

"There are at present at least three worthy young men of excellent character and scholarship who ought to go through the university. It will be impossible for them to go even the first year without assistance.

"At the present time you can give assistance to one only and unless you can materially increase the membership in the Alumni Association the funds will be exhausted within three years.

"I am writing this in hope that you will urge the alumni of the school to assist in this most worthy work.

"Yours very sincerely,
"CHARLES E. KEYES."

The Alumni Association now numbers more than 1500 Oakland High school graduates.

PRESIDENT FAVORS FEDERAL ROADS

Government Lines in Alaska Believed Desirable by Wilson.

WASHINGTON, June 17. — President Wilson yesterday gave his approval to a plan for immediate legislation authorizing the construction of government railroads in Alaska. In a conference with Senator Pittman, chairman of the Senate territories committee, the President in general terms approved a bill that had been agreed upon by the committee earlier in the day, and expressed his willingness that the measure should be urged upon the immediate attention of Congress, if any measures outside of tariff and currency reform are to be considered. The revised Alaskan bill, as it will be introduced in the Senate tomorrow by Senator Chamberlain, leaves the entire control of constructive work to the President. The committee yesterday eliminated the provision for a special commission to construct the roads and also the provision which would have authorized the government to develop and control the coal fields in the territory. A bond issue of $40,000,000 would be authorized for the railroad development and provision would be made for the use of Panama canal machinery in the construction work.

FRENCH VITAL RECORDS WORST IN MANY YEARS

PARIS, June 17.—The vital statistics for 1912 report 750,650 births throughout France as compared with 742,114 for the year 1911. Dr. Jacques Bertillon, the expert, says the improvement is more apparent than real and that the two years, 1911 and 1912, have established the worst record in many years, "clearly demonstrating the persistence of the evil which is driving France to ruin."

The detailed statistics for 1912 are: Marriages 311,929; births 750,650; deaths 692,740.

Dr. Bertillon concludes his statement by saying:

"This is the true cause of the three years' military service, which is the merest palliative. Soon four years will be necessary, then five, or perish."

Had Serious Lung Trouble; Now Well

It is surprising that there exists much skepticism as to the possibility of a person recovering from severe Lung Trouble when there are so many reports of complete recoveries brought about through the use of Eckman's Alterative. This is a remedy for the throat and lungs, which should be investigated by every sufferer. Read of this case:

1619 Susquehanna Ave., Phila., Pa.

"My Dear Sir: For two years I was afflicted with hemorrhages of the lungs, and in February of 1902 I was taken with a severe attack of pneumonia. When I recovered sufficiently to walk about the house I was left with a frightful hacking cough, which no medicine I had taken could alleviate. It was at this time, March, 1902, that I started taking Eckman's Alterative. In a short time my cough was gone and I was pronounced well. Since that time I have had two slight attacks of pneumonia, and I have resorted to no other medicine to effect a recovery. I cannot speak too highly for the good it has done."

(Signed) HOWARD L. KLOTZ

Eckman's Alterative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious in cases of severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. For sale by The Owl Drug Co. and other leading druggists. Two Beauty Suggestions for Summer Months

(The Beauty Doctor.)

Instead of pore-clogging powders, creams and rouge, make up at home and keep on your dresser for frequent use this simple lotion: Dissolve four ounces spurmax in ½ pint witch hazel (or hot water), add two teaspoonfuls glycerine and allow to cool. Clear, small-pored, velvety skin with the exquisite tint of youthful health results from its regular application, while pimples, freckles, tan, and sunburn give no further trouble.

Quickly, yet gently, remove every particle of dust, dandruff and excess oil from the hair and leave it evenly dried, soft, glossy and easy to do up by a canthrox shampoo. It will stimulate the roots, thus resulting in exceptional growth of heavy hair. To make this exquisite and economical shampoo, just dissolve a teaspoonful of canthrox in a teacupful of hot water.

POINTS TO LOBBY MADE LEGISLATION

Senator William A. Smith Declares Sundry Civil Bill Clause Lobbied.

WASHINGTON, June 17. — Senator William Alden Smith of Michigan declared before the Senate lobby investigating committee today that the clause in the sundry civil bill, now awaiting President Wilson's signature, exempting labor unions and farmers' organizations from prosecution under the Sherman anti-trust law, represented work of a lobby.

The American Federation of Labor, he declared, had lobbied for the exemptions, although Samuel Gompers had admitted to him that it was class legislation, a term former President Taft applied in vetoing the bill last spring.

"The very bill on the President's desk this morning," he said, "was put through by a lobby of labor organizations; they know there is class legislation in it. Samuel Gompers admitted to me it was class legislation, and that is the kind of lobby I think exists.

"LOBBIES HAVE RIGHTS."

"Of course, the American Federation of Labor has a lobby here. I don't condemn it. They have a right to be here; so have the sugar people, and the steel people and the others. I think there is a very considerable lobby here; there always has been and always will be, and I think it is appropriate and a right to be here.

"In everything I have done here I have encountered the lobby—it does not do me any harm. I encountered it in the Titanic investigation and the Mexican revolution. They are here and they have a right to be here."

OTHERS HAVE LOBBIED?

Senator Smith added he knew John Norris of the "newspaper people" had been here for free print paper.

He added:

"Temperance people have maintained a lobby in Washington."

"You don't attach any odious significance to the lobby, do you?" asked Senator Walsh.

"I do not; it is often unwise, but these people have a right to be here and be heard."

OAKLAND RECORD OF BOY PROBED

George Griffin Faces Jail Term in Stockton for Robbery.

STOCKTON, June 17.—His Alameda county record will probably be the factor which will determine if 19-year-old George Griffin, son of Mrs. Fannie Griffin of [illegible] East Fourteenth street, Oakland, is to be sentenced to a prison term. He was refused probation in court here when tried on a charge of robbery, but his attorney declared that he could show evidence to prove that the boy's Oakland record was good. The case was laid over awaiting this evidence. Griffin pleaded guilty.

Under the name of Eugene Griffin, the youth was arrested in Oakland February 8, 1909, on a charge of burglary. He was sent to the state reformatory at Ione two weeks later, but got into trouble there and escaped. He gave himself up at the door of the county jail here some time after and was placed in charge of the probation officer for a term of 10 years on March 25, 1910, at the age of [illegible] near Martinez and is still responsible to the local authorities for the term of his probation which has not yet expired. The charge upon which he was originally arrested here was of stealing jewelry and selling the loot. He was assisted by some youthful companions. TO BREAK GROUND FOR DOCK PROJECT

First Passenger Steamer Will Pass Over Richmond Harbor Tomorrow.

RICHMOND, June 17.—The first steamer carrying passengers to pass through the proposed Richmond inner harbor will arrive at Ellis Landing at the foot of Tenth street in this city tomorrow at noon. The boat will be piloted by John Ellis, one of the pioneer residents of this city, who in the early days had charge of the wharf at the landing and operated a fleet of scows between this city and San Francisco engaged in hauling hay and other farm produce for farmers in this vicinity and San Pablo.

[illegible] ceremonies of breaking ground for the construction of docks and wharves on the property by the Ellis Landing and Dock Company, which recently purchased it, will take place, after which a luncheon will be served on the present wharves which are to be torn down and replaced by the most modern docks and warehouses to front on a channel which will be dredged from the landing to the deeper water of the inner harbor basin.

Preparations are already being made for the construction of a bulkhead along the proposed channel while dredging of the channel will also be started within the next month. ALBANY, N. Y., June 17. — Governor Sulzer submitted last night to the legislature, convened in extraordinary session, a special message urging the passage of his direct primary bill, which was defeated at the recent regular session. "This unimpeachable testimony," he says, "seems quite conclusive."

HOLDS UP BANK IN MIDDAY.

ROSEBURG, Ore., June 17.—The State Bank of Glendale, 65 miles south of here, was robbed yesterday by a man alleged to be Ray Diamond, a local character. He held up Cashier B. H. Smith with a rifle, took $3290 in gold and currency and escaped to the timbered hills. Several shots were exchanged in his flight, but none took effect. A posse is in pursuit.

Boost for San Francisco and the Exposition

AS THE time for holding the Panama-Pacific exposition approaches, all the towns in this section of the state, not merely those around the bay, but all in Central California, should get behind San Francisco and boost for the fair. It is time to quit knocking and finding fault, and get together in a friendly, neighborly spirit in furtherance of the common good. Let us have unity and progress. Representing the whole State, San Francisco is getting ready to play host to the whole world. Every city and town in the State should lend a willing hand to help in the work of receiving and entertaining strangers. San Francisco is the exposition city, and San Francisco is standing to her work nobly and bravely despite some unexpected obstacles and the difficulties which are incidentally encountered in carrying any public enterprise of magnitude.

The get-together spirit which effervesced so freely at the hands-around-the-harbor banquet given by the Oakland Commercial Club has not evaporated. There is no real ill-feeling toward San Francisco—only cordial good wishes for her prosperity and the success of the international exposition soon to be held within her gates. The temporary resentment provoked by the annexation campaign has subsided. That issue is dead and buried; let us forget it. But in the meantime, it should be borne in mind that though divided by municipal and county lines the whole bay region constitutes a single commercial community, of which San Francisco is the financial and travel center. Our interests in the larger and truer sense are one. What benefits San Francisco benefits Oakland, Berkeley and Richmond. Questions of local government aside, we have the same ends in view.

All of us desire to make San Francisco bay the marine emporium of the Pacific Coast. It is as directly to the interest of Oakland, San Jose, Sacramento and Stockton that this be done, as it is to the interest of the city of San Francisco. Therefore, all should assist in bringing about a condition which will benefit us all and injure none. The building up of San Francisco will simply make Oakland grow larger, and the growth and prosperity of Oakland will increase the splendor and importance of San Francisco.

And what is true of Oakland is true of every city and town not only in the bay region but the central section of the State. Hence we should strive together for our common good and the greatness of California.

San Francisco has had her troubles and misfortunes, owing in part to visitations of providence, and in another part to the perversity of a small minority of her inhabitants. The ravages of disaster have been repaired with a celerity and courage unequalled in the history of mankind. Her political and social troubles have been composed as well as such troubles are ever composed in a large city containing a volatile population composed of diverse elements.

Today San Francisco is more magnificent and populous than she was before fire laid her in ruins. She has not only built anew with wonderful rapidity, but she has built upon broader and more beautiful lines. Yet her neighbors have prospered and grown with unexampled rapidity while the metropolis was restoring her ruined edifices and regaining the commerce paralyzed or temporarily driven away by the great calamity of April, 1906.

Now that San Francisco has been rebuilt and her commercial primacy re-established the other bay cities are no less prosperous. They have lost nothing of their gain because San Francisco has regained her own. On the contrary they continue to grow as San Francisco grows, each sharing in some degree by the growth of other towns in this section.

The tremendous exertions put forth by the people of San Francisco have stimulated the neighboring cities to greater achievement. The rise of San Francisco from her ruins is not more remarkable than the transformation Oakland, Berkeley, San Jose, Sacramento and Stockton have undergone during the past seven years. We have all grown together in obedience to the same impulse generated by the same forces, the same genius and the same inspiration.

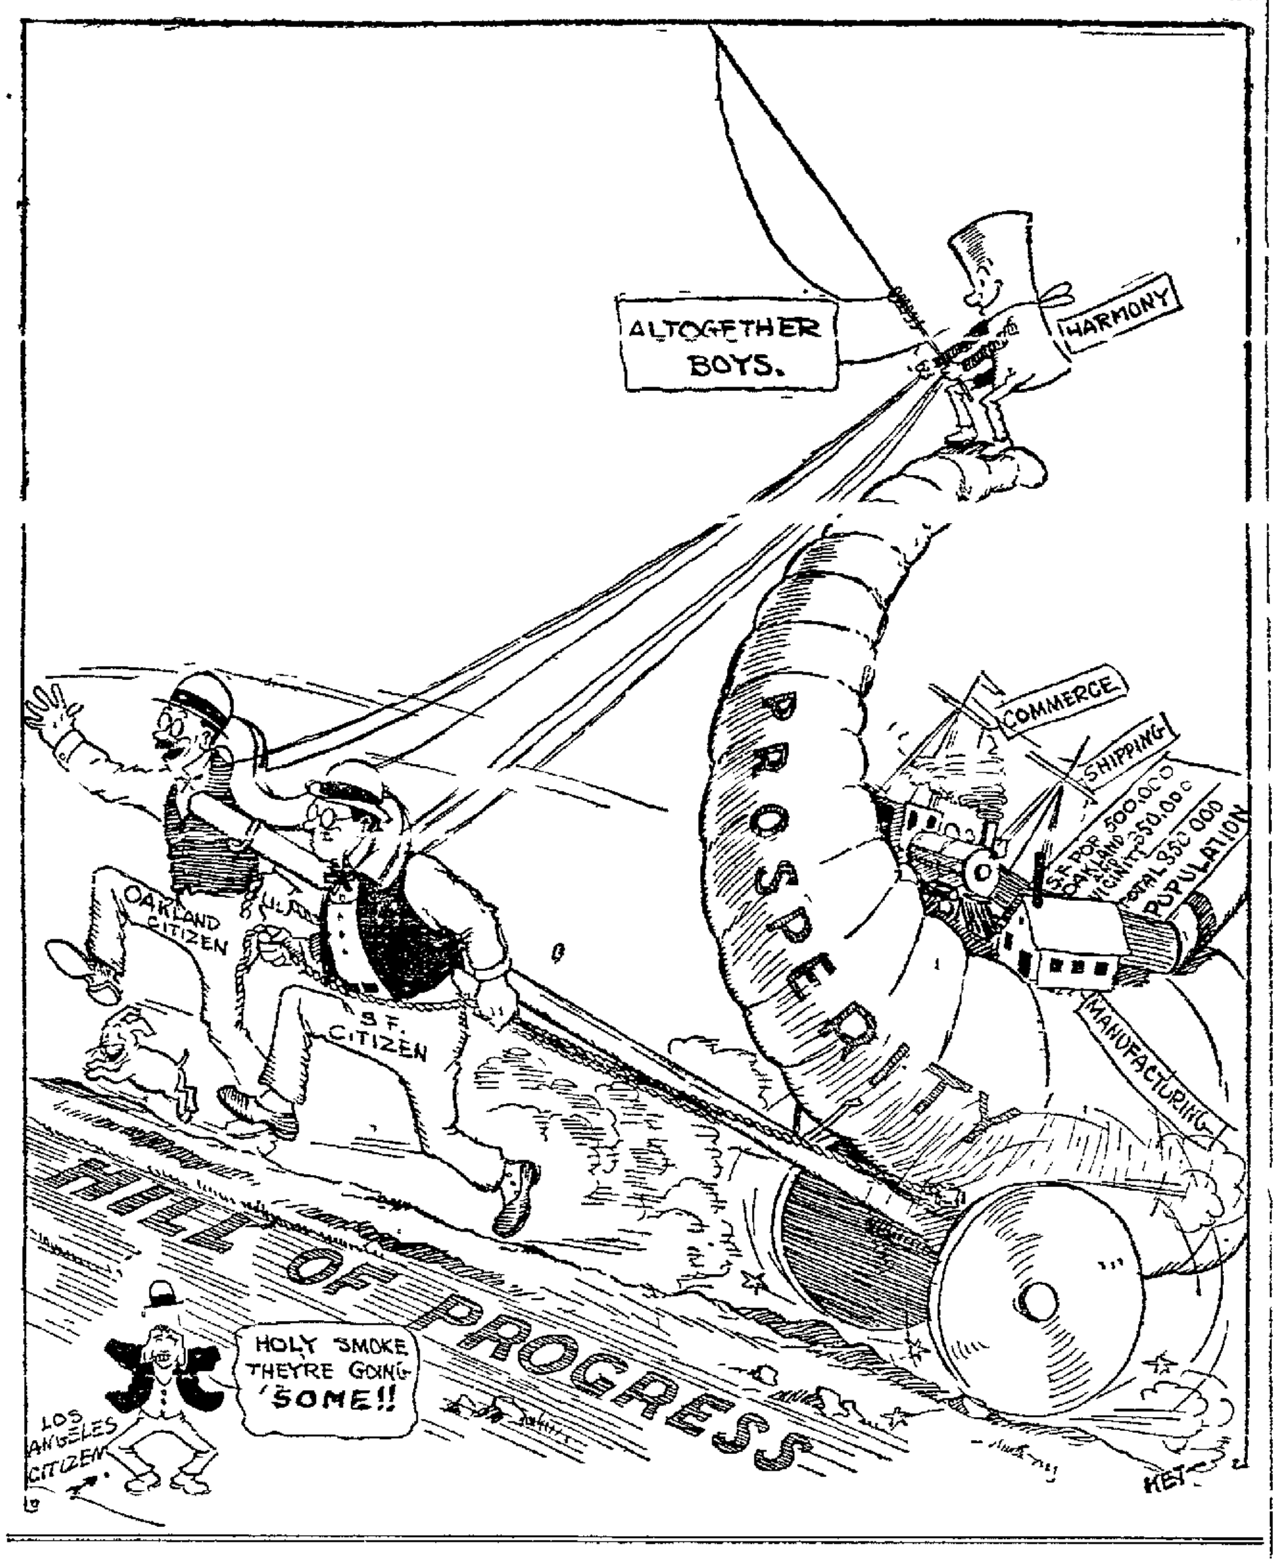
Hence it is folly for one community to be jealous of another, or believe that prosperity of the lesser communities can be built upon the decay of the larger.

San Francisco has finer hotels and shopping palaces than she had before the fire. So has Oakland, so have Sacramento, Stockton and San Jose. San Francisco has resumed and increased her business, but it has not hurt any of her neighbors. For example, compare the hotels and department stores of Oakland, Berkeley, Sacramento, Stockton and San Jose with those they had prior to the rebuilding of San Francisco, and it will be realized that the prosperity of the metropolis has helped instead of hindering development in the other cities of the bay region.

The ill-natured flings at San Francisco should cease. They are unjustified, and they recoil upon the whole State. San Francisco is a clean city in the moral as well as the physical sense. She has put down license while readjusting the confusion caused by maladministration, rebuilding her merchant palaces and rehabilitating her commercial system, and on top of it all she is preparing for her great exposition on a more splendid and comprehensive scale than any similar undertaking was prepared for before.

Let us all help, by friendly encouragement, if no more. The greater the success of the exposition the greater the benefit to California. As San Francisco grows in civic greatness and commercial vigor, so will all her neighbors wax fat and grow in prosperity. It behooves them then to put their shoulders to the wheel and push for the exposition. San Francisco's efforts deserve a more cordial recognition than they have yet received We hope they will meet with warmer appreciation in future.

WHEN HARMONY HAS THE REINS



Competition of a Bad Kind.

Visalia is a thriving town but it has not a large population, and the surrounding country is not thickly populated. It has two excellent papers—one printed in the morning and the other in the afternoon—which cover the field well and supply all the news and advertising media the community needs. Both the Times and the Delta appear to be moderately prosperous, but not more so than any well conducted business should be. It is announced that a third paper is to be established. It will be one too many. The only reason given for its existence is that some people object to Visalia being a dry town and that both the existing journals are opposed to licensing the liquor traffic. This would indicate that the new paper will be primarily an organ of the liquor interests. To carry the inference further, it appears that the new journal is not to be started as a legitimate enterprise, but as the mouthpiece of a sumptuary policy. It is not likely to be a business success on the basis outlined. By cutting advertising rates it may succeed in injuring the Times and the Delta, but it will hardly make any money for itself. If it is to be a subsidized organ it is bound to prove a failure. It will not be a true newspaper and it will not be a financial success. The two journals now in possession of the field are all the newspapers Visalia needs or can support legitimately. A third will be an intruder in a field already well filled, and will appear as the organ of an interest which should have learned by experience that it is not wise to meddle too much in politics. THE TRIBUNE often differs with both its Visalia contemporaries, but it does not believe in cut-throat competition, especially when it is conducted illegitimately to accomplish a political end or wreak a revenge.

BUSINESS MEN AS CITY · OFFICIALS

The financial debacle in which the city has become involved prompts an inquiry which every citizen will naturally ask. Why is it that the business men in charge of our municipal affairs have managed matters so that a general cessation of public improvements is threatened? No private business enterprise could permit itself to get into so embarrassing a pickle. No manager who did not foresee and prepare for just such exigencies as the one which now perplexes our municipal overseers could hold his position in private employment. The bonds were not sold when they could be sold, hence the present difficulty. Interest rates have gone up since then. but interest rates on bonds cannot be adjusted to meet the fluctuations of the money market. Our debt is small and our credit is good as it ever was, but bonds drawing 4½ per cent interest do not invite investment at this particular time. But why have the officials in charge of the municipal business allowed the market to slip away from them in the manner that it has?

Apparently the Legislature had in mind Abe Gruber's maxim, "Give the people what they want and make it unconstitutional" when the appropriation to pay the fare of Gettysburg survivors in this State to the big anniversary celebration next month was passed. The Attorney-General has decided that the appropriation will not be available till the celebration is over. The Legislature has shown its solicitude for the old soldiers and the State keeps the money—it will be needed to pay the army of the Lord serving in California. The Gettysburg survivors may stay at home or walk, whichever suits them best, but they are expected to thank the Legislature all the same.

ANCIENT WEATHER MAN

A London theologian has recently claimed for the prophets of old a knowledge of science far greater than modern man gives them credit for. He says that they prophesied because they understood perfectly the laws of nature.

For instance, the weather moves in cycles and that was a fact known ages ago. The cycle is 19 years. Elijah predicted a drought in the land. "As the Lord God of Israel liveth, there shall not be dew nor rain these years but according to my word."

The scientists of those days could have predicted the drought as well as Elijah for it was known at that time that droughts move in cycles of 19 years, and it was then just 42x19 years after Pharoah's drought in the days of Joseph and that was 5x19 years after the drought in the time of Isaac, as recorded in Genesis xxvi.

Nineteen years after Elijah called down the drought and famine on the land Elisha said "For the Lord hath called for a famine."

The drought in David's time was not predicted but it was explained as being because of Saul and his "bloody house." Yet it occurred just 36x19 years after Pharoah's drought.

In all probability the astronomers of the ancient world were familiar with the cycles of drought and famine just as they were with the cycles of eclipses 4000 years before our era. So undoubtedly the Egyptians knew of the cycles of the fat and lean years and the Jews carried that knowledge with them when they left Egypt.—Chicago Tribune.

HEARING MUSIC BY TOUCH

A girl was seated playing, and a few feet from her, Helen Keller stood at the piano, her right hand on the instrument. The beautiful sounds flowed through her fingers to her consciousness and she answered the rhythm in the vibrations with a swaying motion of her body. With her left hand she gestured, beat time and carved in the air the image of what she heard. As the musician at the keyboard played she watched the face of the girl who was blind and deaf. Responses to the music were there visible, more swift and understanding than the applause of any audience. The sweet face was in pain as brief, troubled phrases of Grieg reached through. To Cyril Scott she danced, saying she saw children running down hill. Out from her inner life rushed responses more delicate and ready than we with our five senses are able to give. In the half hour of the music she lived the full range of emotion. And when it was ended, with her gentle fingers she felt the face and hair of the player and kissed the cheek. So she lives her life, always reaching out for love, always winning it.—Collier's Weekly.

The Abyssinians and Somalis are considered the most expert in skinning goats. CHURCH VESTRYMAN SUED FOR ALLEGED SLANDER

LOS ANGELES, June 17.—A suit, alleging malicious slander and asking $25,000 damages, was filed in the Superior Court yesterday against E. P. Johnson, a vestryman of the fashionable Christ Episcopal church, by County Supervisor R. H. Norton. Norton, who recently left the church, of which he, too, had been a vestryman, asserted that Johnson, in making a recent report on church expenditures, included this statement:

"And a gasoline bill for Mr. Norton, who used the machine (owned by the church) in his campaign for supervisor."

Norton at the time denied that he had made use of the church's automobile for political campaign purposes and declared that "he never would darken the portals of Christ Church again."

The affair caused a great sensation among the church members, some of whom, with the pastor, Rev. Baker P. Lee, were said to have taken sides in the matter.

HITS CHAUFEUR; SENT TO CITY JAIL

Laborer Caught After Exciting Chase; Given 30 Days.

Angered because Walter Smith, the chauffeur, refused him a dime on request, Frank Vierra, a laborer, struck Smith in the face at Thirteenth and Franklin streets last night, knocking him to the sidewalk. A crowd gathered and Vierra ran from the scene.

Smith hailed a passing automobile, in which he recognized a friend, and climbing to the running board, directed the machine in a man hunt through the streets in pursuit of his assailant. The chase continued from Thirteenth and Washington to Frankin and Eighth streets, where Vierra dodged into a poolroom and attempted to escape through a rear entrance and side alley.

The chase had been taken up by other chauffeur friends of Smith and one of these saw the panting runner emerge from an alley. Vierra was captured and taken to the police station, where a charge of battery was placed against him.

Vierra pleaded guilty before Judge Mortimer Smith this morning, and was sentenced to spend 30 days at work on the city rock pile.

WILL START PROBE OF POOL ROOMS

District Attorney's Office Will Make a Searching Investigating.

Assistant District Attorney Phil M. Carey has commenced a searching investigation into the alleged operation of poolrooms in Alameda county, following developments in the case of Mrs. Julia Aker, who was arrested several months ago at her home, 2600 Brush street, together with several other women, with a complete outfit for selling pools on horseraces. Mrs. Aker was placed on probation for a term of one year by Superior Judge Wells late yesterday afternoon, following her plea of guilty to her share in the poolroom and her promise that she would do all within her power to assist the authorities in weeding out the unlawful practice.

This morning Mrs. Josephine Roebling, one of the women taken in the raid on the Aker place, pleaded guilty before Superior Judge Wells and asked to be granted probation. Her case was referred case of Rodolph Abraham, another of the alleged poolroom operators, was continued until next Friday, when it is believed that he also will plead guilty.

That there is a syndicate of poolroom operatives working in the county is the belief of the district attorney, and that there will be some further light shed upon the gambling is probable as a result of the co-operation offered by those who have been recently convicted of the crime.

New Jersey Delegation Accepts Land at Exposition for Building.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 17.—The members of the New Jersey Society of California and a large number of residents of President Wilson's state, who have not identified themselves with that organization, together with the New Jersey commissioners, took part this afternoon in an interesting and imposing ceremony when the state flag was raised on a site at the Panama-Pacific Exposition grounds. The location for the New Jersey buildings, for which $200,000 has already been set aside, was an event of more than ordinary importance. A deed to the property was given to the commissioners, composed of Robert S. Hudspeth, General Dennis F. Collins, Captain Asher Carter Baker, G. S. Drew, Mayor Frederick Donnelly, N. R. Margerum, Walter P. Gardener, Joseph K. Waddington, Curtis R. Barnett, H. G. Wolf, Thomas O'Gara and W. S. Grover. Prior to the ceremonies a luncheon was tendered at the Hotel St. Francis to the delegates, and the women of the party were the guests of the Exposition Woman's Board at a luncheon at the Fairmont Hotel. The Sixth and Sixteenth Infantry regiments and the Signal Corps were reviewed at the Presidio reservation.

NEW LILY PROVES TO BE MYSTERY

Singularly Beautiful Flower's Origin Not Known by Grower.

Oakland, noted for its many flowers, has produced one which has attracted considerable attention in the shape of a new lily accidentally discovered by former [illegible] of a cross between a calla lily and a Jeru- The new lily is evidently in the nature of a cross between a calla lily and a Jerusalem lily, and is of singular beauty. The former city offical states that it grew from a bulb included in a number of calla lily bulbs, and he is at a loss to exactly determine its genealogy.

"The lily is growing at my home at 962 Fifty-fourth street," he declared, "and has been for some time. I do not remember where I got the bulb now, but it is so peculiar that I believe I will have it looked up." The lily has the characteristics of both lilies mentioned. The leaves are dark green with transparent spots. It grows slightly larger than the calla lily.

ALAMEDA, June 17.—Leon de Vrentz of Oakland was taken into custody this morning by Detective William Wahmuth and booked at the local police station on a charge of having stolen a bicycle from Rhodes Jamison. The complaint was sworn to by J. Montgomery, bookkeeper for the firm.

De Vrentz is a Frenchman, by occupation a bartender. He has just finished serving a three months' sentence in the Alameda county jail for a like offense. De Vretz is about 30 years of age.

TRUTH STRANGE AS FICTION SOMETIME

Here Is Proof of It in Much Grist From Mill of Daily Events.

CHICAGO, June 17.—For every volume of the "six best seller" that is issued each year a carload of Bibles is manufactured.

This information was gleaned yesterday at the annual book fair which opened at the Palmer House. Publishers of anything and everything will display their wares there for the next two weeks, during which time Chicago and Middle Western dealers will make their purchases for the coming year. Mother Goose rhymes hold equal place and heavy scientific tomes, Bibles are arrayed with the latest and most risque problem novels.

"The public taste changes from time to time," said Arthur J. Saalfield, president of the Saalfield Publishing Company of New York, "but the Bible continues to be [illegible] other books are turned out by the volume it is turned out by the carload."

According to Saalfield, "Robinson Crusoe" and "The Swiss Family Robinson" will live as long as the Bible itself. They constitute the two most popular characterization volumes.

About fifty publishers are represented at the convention.

WILSON KEEPS COOL.

[illegible] seven tons of ice, which cost the people of the United States about $56, President Wilson kept cool yesterday despite a 100-in-the-shade temperature, and the sizzling comments about the tariff and currency from legislators missing their summer vacations. This statement is literally true, for the huge refrigerating plant under the President's office, which reduces the temperature 20 degrees, was started yesterday. Meanwhile at the capitol the solons sweltered and fanned, assisted by electric fans, but sans the lemonade of past sessions. Economy and lemonade don't mix.

PRINCE HIKES FAR.

LONDON, June 17.—"Cadet Edward," as the Prince of Wales is enrolled and known in the officers' training corps, marched twenty miles yesterday, carrying a rifle, knapsack and water bottle. The thermometer was at 80 degrees in the shade, but he finished in good condition.

The Prince slept in a barn with his fellow cadets. He turned out at 5 o'clock yesterday morning and washed at a village pump. It was already hot when the march started, and soon after the sun was broiling. At ten miles some of the cadets gave up and were put in ambulances. A majority of them, however, including the Prince, went through twenty miles.

During the last five miles when all were getting fagged out, somebody suggested that the Prince fall out. He replied with a determined "no." The march was finished at midday. The Prince then slept for two hours, after which he swam across a pond.

ON SEVENTH LAP.

NEW YORK, June 17.—Of the many saloon passengers on the Atlantic transport liner Minnehaha last night none stepped down the gang plank with spryer step than did Captain J. M. Peebles of Vermont and California. The Captain is now on his seventh lap around the world. He is 91 years old and has taken up circumnavigation as a fad. He expects to resume his journeying as soon as he can get rested up a bit.

On the voyage from London, at the request of the passengers, he gave a lecture [illegible] though he was a surgeon in the Civil War, he did not believe in drugs as a method of preserving the health or prolonging life. He expects to prolong his years to 100 or more on a vegetable diet and an abstinence from whisky.

JOHN D. INTERESTED.

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., June 17.—John D. Rockefeller is taking unusual interest in the New York morning newspapers lately, and his coachman is aroused at 4:30 every morning to go down town to get them. In some instances he has to wake up the news man, for no one is out that early for their papers.

"Why, I don't get them early enough for Mr. Rockefeller even now," said the coachman. "The other morning he was so anxious that he [illegible] half way down the road to meet me. Mr. Rockefeller is getting up these mornings at sunrise."

Rockefeller has been playing his usual game of golf despite the hot weather, and will return to Cleveland June 23.

SPOUSE WAS MOROSE, IS DIVORCE COMPLAINT

SAN FRANCISCO, June 17. — Sarah Mendelson, wife of Isadore S. Mendelson, [illegible] sister of Mrs. Arthur Peheim, local society woman, was granted a divorce today by Superior Judge Graham. Mrs. Mendelson, who lives at the Bellevue Hotel, testified that her spouse was touchy, morose and surly, and that when he would leave her in the morning he would not even say good-bye. She said he accused her of being extravagant, whereas he never even gave her the $15 a week which he promised for the support of the household.

In the same court Henrietta Middlekauff was given a decree from Frank Middlekauff on the ground of non-support.

BORROWS WAITER'S COAT FOR SOIREE

Banker Gets Royal Reception in Far From Royal Costume.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., June 17.—Among the interesting stories coming back to this country from the American commission that is studying agricultural problems in Europe is one told by Mrs. C. E. Lahman of Vinita, the only woman member of this commission. In a letter [illegible] tells of G. R. Hogan, an Iowa banker, borrowing a frock coat from a waiter in Rome in order that he might be dressed to accompany the commission to a reception given by the king and queen.

"We were instructed beforehand," says Mrs. Hahman, "that the ladies should wear calling costumes and the men frock or evening coats. No one in a business suit would be allowed to pass the portal. This caused consternation in the ranks, for a few of the men had nothing else. Mr. Hogan hired a frock coat from a waiter and wore it with the blue vest and trousers of his business suit plus a pair of tan shoes and a soft gray felt hat. But they let him in.

"We were introduced one after another and shook hands with the king and then the queen, to the great gratification of our democratic souls.

"The American commission is taken seriously over here. We are to be entertained in state everywhere we go. Each of the countries we expect to visit has a representative here to invite and greet us in the name of his government."

HAIR IS "BOBBED:" MOTHER HAS TO PAY

NEW YORK, June 17.—Dorothy Casserly, eight years old, had her hair bobbed. It cost her mother $20. Dorothy is perfectly satisfied with the bargain, but her mother, Mrs. Thomas Casserly, 1265 Norwood street, and Frank Hugo, a barber, who did the bobbing, are looking for $19.65 change and a negro porter named Frank.

When Mrs. Casserly decided to take Dorothy to Hugo's barber shop at 6100 Evanston avenue she had nothing but a $20 bill. After the barber finished with Dorothy's hair Mrs. Casserly handed him a $20 bill. Hugo did not have enough to change it. He handed the bill to Frank, the porter, who was employed by him Monday, to go to the drug store for change.

When Frank saw the size of the bill he gasped. He hurried out. That was the last seen of him.

ENGINEER DRAGS GIRL FROM PATH OF TRAIN

NEWBURG, N. Y., June 17.—Prompt action by Joseph Fetter, a West Shore engine driver, who resides in this city, saved the life of a little child near Orangeburg. The engine driver saw a child cross the rails ahead of him and he down on the southbound track. Knowing that a southbound train was about due he stopped his train, and with his fireman, Harvey Goodman, ran to where the child was.

The two men had just reached the child and pulled her out of the way when the southbound train flashed by. The girl was Patricia Donato, whose parents lived near the railroad and who had eluded her mother.

Bishop Brent congratulates himself on coming in contact with the common people by traveling over in steerage, but he will meet none of his old friends if he returns the same way a few years hence.

WORRY DRIVES HIM TO SUICIDE

DIES ON THE TAILORING BENCH

Richard Willike Locks Door and Cuts Throat During a Sleepless Night.

Missing her husband from her side at an early hour this morning, Mrs. Richard Willike arose and went to the little tailor shop at the rear of her home, 225 Sixth street, to seek him. The door was locked from the inside, but a thin stream of blood dripping across the threshold told the tragedy that had taken place within. Mrs. Willike's screams were heard by Mrs. J. Scanlon, 224 Sixth street, and the police were summoned to break down the door.

The body of Willike was found lying across his tailoring bench. He had cut his throat with a razor-edged knife, and life was already extinct when the body was discovered.

It is believed that Willike, who has been worrying over money difficulties of late, did not sleep last night. For several nights, according to his wife, he had been a victim of insomnia brought on by worry. While his wife was sleeping, he arose with the dawn and went to the little shop where for weeks he has sat brooding [illegible] affairs.

Patrolman Brewick, who was called to the scene, had the body removed to the morgue. An inquest will be held. Mrs. Willike is being cared for by friends, as she is in danger of nervous prostration.

Willike was 48 years of age and a native of Germany.

PICKET IS SHOT BY ELECTRICIAN

Near Riot Results When the Workman Flees From Manhole.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 17.—William Elfgen, a picket for the Electrical Workers' Union on strike against the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, was shot in the knee by Miles Sikes, an employe of the corporation, who innocently started a near-riot at Fourth and Market streets at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. A bystander, Lloyd Canfield of Visalia, who tried to aid the police and was mistaken for one of the strikers, was struck on the head, and he, Elfgen and Sikes were removed to the Central Emergency hospital. Mayor Rolph heard of the affair and about 12 o'clock went to the hospital to investigate.

Sikes had been working in a manhole and says he feared he had been followed by strikers and would be attacked. He ran down Fourth street and a crowd followed. Drawing his revolver he fired and hit Elfgen. The police finally disarmed him. Sikes, according to employes of the Gas and Electric Company, was a marked man and twice before had been attacked. Elfgen's injury is not serious.

Mrs Mathews saved the life of her spouse by [illegible] pistol held by Knox to one side, and as the result Mathews received only a slight injury. Knox was booked for assault with a deadly weapon. KILLS DOCTOR AND TAKES OWN LIFE

Widow Fires Six Shots At Physican for Unknown Cause.

Falls Lifeless Across Victim's Body With Bullet Through Temple.

SAVANNAH, Ga., June 17.—Dr. Guy O. Brinkley, a physician of this city, was shot to death in his office here late yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Eugene H. Whisnant, a widow, who, after firing six shots at the physician sent a seventh bullet through her temple, falling lifeless across the body

The police are searching for an unknown woman, who is said to have accompanied Mrs. Whisnant to the doctor's office.

Dr. Brinkley, who was about 45 years old, and unmarried, came here about seven years ago from Suffolk, Va. He was popular socially and professionally. Mrs. Whisnant, aged 28, was the daughter of a Savannah boarding house keeper. No cause has been assigned for the tragedy.

It is said that when Mrs. Whisnant and her companion reached the doctor's office the former went with Dr. Brinkley into his private office, the other woman remaining in the outer office. A few minutes later the firing began and Dr. Brinkley rushed out, followed by Mrs. Whisnant, who was steadily firing. Dr. Brinkley called to the maid to summon the police. Mrs. Whisnant is said to have pursued the doctor to the porch and back into the office, continuing to fire at him. Her sixth shot entered his heart, killing him instantly. The woman then shot herself through the head.

The general plan is well outlined in the topics of the following discussions taking place this afternoon.

Moore of Berkeley; "The initiative proposition for a dry zone around all universities and normal schools in the State, led by Franklin Hichborn, Santa Clara; "A county unit amendment to the State local option law," opened by B. M. Gandier, executive superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League; "Better law enforcement," by Dr. E. S. Chapman of Los Angeles, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Southern California.

PILLSBURY STILL CONFINED HOME

Industrial Accident Commissioner Unable to Appear Against Assailant.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 17.—A J Pillsbury, commissioner of the Industrial Accident Board of California, who claims to have been attacked in his office last evening by Joseph Pendo, was unable to appear in Police Judge Crisp's court today and is confined to his home in Piedmont. For that reason the charge of assault with a deadly weapon preferred against Pendo was continued until Thursday. Pillsbury claims that Pendo struck him a blow on the top of the head in a fit of anger when the idea seized him that he was being unjustly deprived of damages for injuries received in an accident. Pendo was captured by two citizens and held until the arrival of the police. Dr. Eivenmuller found that Pillsbury had received a severe lacerated wound of the scalp

Pillsbury said last night that after an examination of Pendo by eight physicians, it had been decided to give the man $30 damages.

ESOLA'S STAR FEARED BY POLICE AS HOODOO

SAN FRANCISCO, June 17.—Star No. 144 is going begging. It is the hoodoo badge of the police department. At least, that is what it is now being considered since it was taken from the breast of Policeman Frank Esola. A. A. McCarte, from the eligible list, was appointed a police officer last night, and beamingly Secretary Skelly of the Police Commission handed him the star.

"Not on your life," said McCarte. "Nothing doing. I want to be a policeman, I want a badge, but I am afraid of the hoodoo."

DO NOT DRINK WITH YOUR MEALS

By LILLIAN RUSSELL

(Copyrighted, 1913, by Lillian Russell.)

DRINKING with meals is fatal to a fine figure, and women should happily abstain from wanting to do so. I cannot see why women should even say that they would be happy if they could eat all they wanted, for they do eat all they want, and if they are true to themselves they will not want anything that will do them harm. So go on, dear friends; eat and drink all you want—it is a matter for yourselves alone; no one can want to eat for you. If you want health and beauty you will not want to eat too much; and if you do not care what becomes of your health and beauty, and prefer rich food and drink—why, that is your business. I for one do not want any food that will be liable to distress by digestion or superfluous flesh. The want of an excess of food is in the mind, not in the inanimate body, and the mind cannot become thin or fat by eating too much. Clever people eat less than unthinking people, for the reason that their minds are occupied with more dignified affairs. American people eat altogether too much, [illegible] is so devastating to beauty as long course dinners. Clever people, like devoted mothers, can make all sorts of delicious things for their children and taek more pleasure in seeing them enjoy their food than if they ate it themselves. The female of every species will starve to feed her young, or one she loves. I have a great respect for the female of every species. Motherhood is unselfish.

There is much talk of late on the question of fasting. One writer advises every one in the universe to fast until he feels a natural hunger. This writer did not take into consideration social conditions. Meals are social institutions, an excuse for social intercourse. To do away with them would change the entire mechanism of life. Fasting should be done only for penance or to give the machinery of the body a rest, and then not long. Freaks have been known to fast for days and weeks; but then they were freaks. The laws of Moses compel his people to fast one day each year and make it a part of their religious life. I think the worthy masters made fasting a compulsion, knowing the weakness of mankind. Instinct tells an animal not to eat when ill, and they faithfully obey their instincts. A dog or horse will refuse food when out of condition. Humans who have common sense should take a lesson from those dumb creatures. When people have eaten too many good things they have crowded their digestive machinery beyond its capacity. How long does digestion take? Some foods take two hours, some nine or ten and no medicine will hasten digestion. Some medicines will relieve gas in the stomach, but nothing will hasten the natural machinery of digestion. Remember, undigested foods cause acids and fermentations to form in the stomach, and when one adds a meal to the stomach which contains undigested food poisons accumulate and facial blemishes and nervous diseases are the result.

MARIE: Lemon juice is a good bleach for the hands. After washing them rub a piece of lemon over them and allow it to dry on the hands. Buttermilk is also good for bleaching. Give this treatment a fair trial, and then if you cannot get your hands as white as you want them send me a stamped, addressed envelope and I shall send you a stronger bleach. This is also good for face and neck.

T. M. A.—If you will send me a stamped, addressed envelope I shall be glad to send you a bleach for your face. Do not, whatever you do, attempt to use peroxide on your hair to bleach it. Leave your hair as it is and no not attempt to ruin it by bleaching it. It is difficult ot keep bleached hair one color, and after using peroxide for a while your hair will look more like straw than anything else.

L. M.—Here is a formula for an excellent hair tonic: One and one-half drams of sulphate of quinine, two drams of tincture of cantharides, two ounces of alcohol, one-half ounce of glycerin, twelve drops of oil of anise, eight ounces of witch hazel. Mix. Apply this tonic each night, massaging it into the scalp thoroughly. Massage is the secret of healthy hair. It keeps the scalp flexible, giving the hair more nourishment and making it full of life and glossy. This tonic also is good for dandruff. Your scalp probably has become tight and dry. This will cause the hair to fall and lose all life and luster. One does not have to be an expert to massage the scalp. Use both hands and rub the scadp back and forth as firmly as you can. If you care for them, send me a stamped addressed envelope and I shall be happy to send you complete instructions for scalp massage.

SCHOOL AND PLAYGROUND

'WILD ANIMALS' TO PLAY PART ON JULY 4

Oakland's boys and girls will play an important part in the festivities planned for July 4. A circus in which the boys will impersonate wild animals is one of the things down on the program and the lads are already at work on rehearsals.

The Mosswood playground children intend to make the "elephant walk" the feature of their celebration. The "elephant walk" will be a contest for a prize and will consist of three entries. Two boys will form the "elephant" and the pair which is the most like the animal will receive the prize.

Flag raising ceremonies, folk dances and a pie-eating contest will be the feature at De Fremery playground, while a doll exhibition by the girls of Bella Vista playground will be the "headliner" there.

The pageant, "The History of the West," will be staged by the children at Tompkins' playground. The pageant will include several hundred children and will show the history of the State from earliest times to the present day.

Races, games and folk dancing will form the order of the day at the Melrose playground, where the children of both the Melrose and the Franklin playgrounds will combine in the program.

A chorus of children, trained by Miss L. Allen, will sing a series of choral numbers at the Allendale playground. George E. Dickie, superintendent of Oakland playgrounds, Kenneth Millican and J. W. Phillips will make short talks on patriotic subjects to the children.

BOYS ON LONG HIKE MARCH INTO YOSEMITE

YOSEMITE, June 17.—Forty-five strong and sturdy, the Columbia Park Boys' Club of San Francisco came marching into the Yosemite Saturday on their Sierra tour which will terminate at Truckee on the Fourth of July. Leaving San Francisco ten days ago, the party of boy pedestrians walked into the Yosemite by way of the picturesque Big Oak Flat road, stopping overnight at Oakdale, Chinese Camp, Groveland, Big Oak Flat and Crocker's, where they gave many attractive features of their entertainments, the reputation of which has given them world-wide fame and travel.

On Saturday evening, the Columbia Boys gave a well-appreciated entertainment in the new and commodious pavilion at Camp Curry, which was crowded with the 500 temporary residents of this unique tent city under the steep of Glacier Point.

Their itinerary calls for a repetition of their performance at Camps Ahwahnee and Lost Arrow, and their departure is scheduled for Tuesday morning. They will walk out by way of the historic Bret Harte country to "Jimtown" (with respect to its residents of today—Jamestown); thence they will trek across the Sierra to Truckee, touring the scenic Tahoe country, and adding materially to the Independence day celebration at the jumping off place for Lake Tahoe. SAN FRANCISCO, June 17.—As a direct contrast to the heat wave which is sweltering the East and the Middle West, the Pacific slope has been remarkably free from warm weather. Reports from up and down the coast show that the climate has been equitable, but there have been no prostrations and that the mercury is not as high as usual at this time of the year. Reports in the weather bureau here give the following temperatures showing the highest and lowest points touched by the mercury.

PROMISES TO CONTINUE.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—The heat wave prevailing from the Rocky mountains to the Atlantic coast promises to continue for the next [illegible] hours.

The only parts of the heat-stricken territory where any relief may be expected are the middle Atlantic states, southern New England, the upper Ohio valley and the south portion of the lake region. Slightly lower temperatures tonight and Wednesday are forecasted for tomorrow. Today promised high temperatures almost everywhere east of Denver.

THREE MEN KILLED.

CINCINNATI, O., June 17.—Three men were killed and 25 prostrated, one seriously, by the heat today. The maximum on the government thermometer was 95 degrees this afternoon. The government kiosk on the street level showed 104 degrees.

HOTTEST ON RECORD.

COLUMBUS, O., June 17.—Ohio today experienced the hottest June day on record, the temperature varying over the state from 96 to 104 degrees. Four are dead as the result of the heat and many are reported prostrated.

According to advices received late last night, northwestern Ohio suffered a severe rain and electrical storm, which did much damage to fruit.

DROP IN TEMPERATURE.

CHICAGO, June 17.—A drop of 25 degrees in temperature brought relief to this city last night after what was, with one exception, the hottest June day on record here. The maximum temperature of the day was 98.4 at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. The hottest June day recorded by the local weather bureau was June 9, 1911, when 98.5 was recorded.

The wind shifted shortly after 3 o'clock and by 4 the temperature had dropped to 84 degrees. Within half an hour the wind shifted againi however, and by 7 o'clock 90 degrees again

MRS. CARLTON WALL, WHO MAY WITHDRAW DIVORCE SUIT AGAINST HUSBAND, WHO SEEKS RECONCILIATION.

MRS. VIOLET A. WALL FILES SUIT ANSWER

Charges Wealthy Clubman With Undue Relations With Others

SAN FRANCISCO, June 17.—Mrs. Violet Armstrong Wall and her husband Carlton Hobbs Wall, wealthy clubman and president of the Techau Tavern Company, who have been at sword's points for several months and are now in the midst of a divorce tangle which Superior Judge Mogan is endeavoring to unravel, may effect a reconciliation. It became known today that Wall has stated openly that he is ready and anxious to smooth over the troubled waters and to bridge the chasm which separates him from his wife. Although yesterday Mrs. Wall, through her counsel Attorney Roche, stated positively that there could be no agreement and that never again would she forgive her spouse, the friends of both and Mrs. Jennie Patterson, Mrs. Wall's mother, are secretly hoping that all may yet be well and that before next month, when the divorce trial is schedluled to take place, harmony may once more reign in the household and all charges be dismissed.

Mrs. Patterson is the manager of the Thismore apartments and her son-in-law, Wall, is on her bond. In a business way the two are very close and recently it was proposed by Wall that his wife and mother-in-law take an apartment house adjoining the Thismore as a business venture. Moreover Wall has given his wife shares of the Techau Tavern stock which brings her in an income of $135 a month. Thus she has voting power in the concern of which her spouse is the head. Attorney Theodore Roche before filing an answer to Wall's cross-complaint in the divorce suit, stated that he had neglected to do so for a month past because of the notoriety which he feared his allegations would cause in the newspapers. When last night the document was placed on record in the county clerk's office, it proved to be rather harmless save and except that it charged Wall with having been rather friendly with several other women, whose names Mrs. Wall confessed she did not know.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 17.—The American Medical Association met for the opening session of its sixty-fourth annual convention at the Auditorium today.

Following the opening program addresses were made by several visiting physicians.

TAX 'TRUSTS' IS PLAN OF SOLON

Hitchcock Proposes to Impose Graduated Income Toll on Corporations.

Capital Stock of More Than $100,000,000 May Be Levied On.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—A graduated income tax on corporations having a capital stock of more than $100,000,000 and controlling more than one-fourth of the production of their respective lines was proposed to the finance committee today by Senator Hitchcock from the floor of the Senate. He stated that because the committee had rejected his proposal to lay a special tax upon the "tobacco trust" he offered the new amendment as a substitute.

"I propose to take these amendments to the Democratic caucus if the finance committee rejects them and to carry them to the floor of the Senate itself, if necessary," declared the Nebraska Senator as he faced Chairman Simmons of the finance committee.

EXPLAINS GRADUATION.

Senator Hitchcock explained that his new proposal to tax the "trusts" provided that on corporations controlling one-third of the production the tax would be 15 per cent of their net annual profits and on those controlling 50 per cent a tax of 25 per cent.

"New York papers have denounced my tobacco tax as socialist," said Senator Hitchcock. "I am ready to accept anything socialistic if it will do the work. I do not think when we are faced with big corporations monopolizing products in defiance of law and public opinion and the spirit of decrees of courts, we should be too squeamish about the method adopted for dealing with them."

The amendment was formally referred to the finance committee.

Race Tip Swindle Nets Large Profit

SAN DIEGO, Cal., June 17.—Dr. Theodore Goldschmidt, manager of a chemical company of Essen, Germany, reported to the police last night that he had been fleeced out of $1750 by two bunco men on an old racing swindling game.

Dr. Goldschmidt says he first made a payment of $250, but several days later when the two alleged swindlers came to him and stated that an additional $1500 was necessary to get the "real dope" on a race, he turned over that amount. He says he was promised a big share on a "30 to 1 shot."

Dr. Goldschmidt does not know the names of the two men, but the police who are working on the case believe they may be operating in Tia Juana, Mexico, across the border.

Dr. Goldschmidt arrived here three weeks ago on a visit.

Aguinaldo May Have Philippine Mission

TOKIO, Japan, June 17.—Dispatches received here from Kobe report the arrival there of a son of Emilio Aguinaldo, the former revolutionary leader of the Filipinos, who is said to be on the way to Tokio.

At Kobe, young Aguinaldo conferred with a number of Japanese. His mission is in some quarters believed to be in connection with the independence movement for the Philippines.

STEFANSSON NOW READY

GOES TO ARCTIC TONIGHT

DR. VILHJALMAR STEFANSSON, WHOSE SCIENTIFIC EXPEDITION IS TO REMAIN IN ARCTIC REGIONS THREE YEARS.

EXPEDITION REMAINS NORTH THREE YEARS

First Port of Call to Be Nome, Alaska, About July 7

VICTORIA, B. C., June 17.—The last fifty tons of coal was piled today on the deck of the whaler Karluk which is to carry Dr. Vilhjalmar Stefansson's scientific and exploring expedition into the Arctic for a three years' stay. All that remained to be done before the sailing for the north was the adjusting of the compasses.

Captain Robert Bartlett, who commanded Peary's ship Roosevelt and who will be master of the Karluk on the Stefansson expedition said his ship would be steaming north before night through the inside passage towards Cross Channel where she will turn westward and head for Unimak Pass, the entrance to Bering sea.

The Karluk's first port of call will be Nome, Alaska, where she is expected to arrive July 7. The Karluk will wait there until Dr. Stefansson and Dr. R. M. Anderson, who will command the Southern party of the expedition arrive from Seattle by mail steamer.

LEAVE JULY 20.

Stefansson does not expect to leave Nome until July 20, as ice conditions in the Arctic ocean would prevent the expeditions making much headway if they passed through Bering Strait before then.

Dr. Stefansson today called attention to his letter of instructions from the Canadian government which is financing the expedition.

The letter says:

"While every precaution should be taken for the lives of the party, the safety of the vessel is not so important."

This means, Dr. Stefansson pointed out, that the government thoroughly understands the nature of the work and is prepared for risks.

The Stefansson Arctic expedition differs from most of the other polar undertakings in that its objects are practical and commercial. Its purposes are to learn whether a polar continent exists; to map the islands already discovered east of the mouth of the Mackenzie river; to make a collection of the Arctic flora and fauna; to survey the channels among the islands in the hope of establishing trade routes; to make a geological survey of the islands, which are believed to contain copper and other minerals, and to study the blonde Eskimos of Coronation Gulf, on the mainland south of Victorialand. No effort will be made to reach the North Pole.

INTO ARCTIC OCEAN.

The Stefansson expedition, when it leaves Nome, Alaska, on July 20, will be composed of the old barkentine rigged wooden whaler Karluk, 247 tons, and the gasoline screw vessel Alaska, thirty-two tons. From Nome the ships will proceed north through Bering Strait into the Arctic ocean during the brief period of open water, and head east to Beaufort sea. It is reported that a continent exists north of the sea, and the Karluk will steer due north and seek land on which Stefansson and his main party may establish a base.

With Stefansson on the Karluk, in the northern party, will be Captain Robert Bartlett, Peary's old sailing master, and a picked crew of Britishers; James Murray, oceanographer; W. T. McKinley, magnetician, University of Glasgow; George Malloch, Canadian government geologist, and a specialist in stratigraphy.

Most of the scientists will join the southern, or Victorialand, party on the Alaska. From Point Barrow she will hurry eastward, hoping to reach a base on Simpson Bay, Victorialand, before winter sets in. In this party will be Dr. R. E. Anderson, zoologist, commanding.

Stefansson and Anderson are thoroughly familiar with the country between Point Barrow, Alaska, and a point far to the east of the Mackenzie river, that having been the scene of their earlier explorations. In their former journeys they were separated most of the time, and each man lived alone, except as they fell in with bands of Eskimos. Stefansson says there is no fear of starvation, for there is plenty of fish and game in the north. Except for some dainties which the ship will carry, the party will subsist as the Eskimos do, on flesh of wild animals, with a few berries in the summer. Both Stefansson and Anderson speak the Eskimo tongue. They know all the Eskimos upon a long stretch of coast, and will obtain dogs from them.

MARTINE AND ATTORNEY IN 'BATTLE'

Lawyer Objects to "Browbeating and Bullying" of Witness.

Scores of Witnesses Will Be Called by Hearings Near End.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., June 17.—In a tumult of disorder, the morning session of the hearing of the Senate mine strike investigating committee broke up here today, with Senator James E. Martine of New Jersey and Quinn Morton, a coal operator, on the verge of a fistic encounter.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., June 17.—With scores of witnesses called to tell the mine operators' side of the labor controversy in the Paint Creek and Cabin Creek districts, the Senate hearings here will end tomorrow night.

News of critical conditions in the hills continued to come into Charleston today. Although union officials declared they were doing their best to keep the men on Paint Creek and Cabin Creek at work, they asserted that some fifty men who participated in strike meetings on Sunday were discharged and that the men were rapidly quitting work. The operators in town said they were having no difficulty running their plants.

CONTROVERSY IS LIVELY.

A wordy controversy between C. C. Watts of counsel for the operators and Senator Martine enlivened the opening of today's session.

Senator Martine was examining Dr. J. W. Ashby, physician for the Cabin Creek Consolidated Coal Company, as to sanitary conditions in the strike zone, which Dr. Ashby said were as "good as they were anywhere else around mines." The senator contradicted this statement and when he and the witness engaged in an argument Watts interferred.

"Mr. Chairman, I object to the senator who is supposed to be sitting as a fair judge," he shouted. "browbeating and bullying this witness. He should not take advantage of his position as a senator of the United States."

MARTINE COMES BACK.

Senator Martine leaped to his feet and shouted:

"I am a senator of the United States and I am exercising my perogatives as senator. You gentlemen with wealth and power at your command should provide sanitary conditions to protect the lives of these workingmen."

"West Virginia," interrupted Watts, "does not need to go to the mosquito ridden swamps of New Jersey to learn sanitation."

"Either stop this or let's adjourn," interjected Senator Kenyon, and Senator Swanson took command of the situation, defending the position of Senator Martine and reprimanding Watts.

Whooping Cough Is Declared Curable

PARIS, June 17.—The discovery in the near future of a cure for whooping cough was predicted today at the academy of sciences by Dr. Emile Roux, director of the pasteur institute. Dr. Rux was merely transmitting the report of Dr. Alfred Conor, bacteriologist of the Belvedere Military Hospital, where, with the colora-boration of Dr. Nicholle he had prepared a solution containing living whooping cough baccilli which they injected into 122 children suffering from the disease, repeating it every two days. Thirty-seven per cent of the children recovered in less than three weeks, whereas, under ordinary treatment, the mildest attacks lasted two months.

Summer Vacation Will Be Devoted to Work on Extravaganza

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, June 17. — To lengthen the time of preparation for the next senior extravaganza and prevent insufficient arrangements that have characterized some past farces, a faculty and student joint committee is at work during the summer vacation making a preliminary plan for the 1914 production. The committee will make its first report early in next semester, though almost a year will elapse before the production.

The faculty represented on the advance committee by Dr. Herbert E. Cory; Professor Chauncey W. Wells and Dr. Jessi-

RAINS FALLING.

FARGO, N. D., June 17.—Light rains are falling in this section of the state today. There was a rainfall from Bismarck to Fargo, 200 miles along the main line of the Northern Pacific. A slight fall is reported all over the southern and eastern counties. Crops had not suffered from the drought, but the high hot winds had blown some lately seeded wheat and barley.

PLYMOUTH CHURCH MAY LOSE PASTOR

Rev. A. W. Palmer Seriously Considering Call From Washington, D. C.

That Rev. A. W. Palmer, pastor of the Plymouth Congregational Church of this city, is seriously considering a call from Washington, D. C., was the statement made at a reception tendered the pastor Sunday evening on the occasion of his departure for a visit to Europe. Several prominent church workers and city officials were on the list of speakers, and it was strongly urged that the church use every possible means to keep the pastor in Oakland.

A move was started immediately on plans for a new church adequate to the needs of the congregation, and a meeting next Sunday will be called by the church officers to consider this project, as well as ways and means of meeting any offer made the pastor from other churches. The entire church membership has been urged to attend this session.

Mayor Frank K. Mott, Charles S. Nash, president of the Pacific Theological Seminary, Robert Robertson, president of the Rotary Club, and several other speakers were heard Sunday night, when the announcement was made that Dr. Palmer was seriously considering the Washington post.

Heretofore several offers from other churches have been made the pastor and he has refused them, stating that his work in Oakland has not been finished. He has made Plymouth Church a pioneer in institutional work in churches and has achieved a striking success with the plan. The meeting Sunday will take up the different innovations needed to bring the church up-to-date.

BIG GUNS BOOM IN TARGET WORK

Night Practice at Fort Scott Is Spectacular; Mark Is Sunk.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 17.—With six giant searchlights illuminating the ocean for miles around and with weather ideal for the work, the great mortars of Battery McKinnon, Fort Winfield Scott, thundered their message over the Pacific last night in the first night practice of the coast artillerymen at the post during the present target season. The practice lasted well after midnight, and many residents of the city, not knowing what the terrific explosions meant, kept telephone wires busy trying to ascertain if they were the results of accidents.

Up to midnight but half a dozen shots had been fired. There would have been far more than these, and from additional guns, were it not for the fact that the twelve-foot base pyramidal target was accidentally sunk during the evening through the tow rope being caught in some unexplained manner, and it was nearly midnight before the target could be raised and practice continued.

The practice was done at 4000 yards, and the flashing searchlights, the guns spouting out their flame during the hours of darkness and the screaming of the great shells as they flew over the ocean, made the practice most spectacular.

Battery McKinnon was manned by the Sixty-fifth Company, Captain Francis H. Lincoln. It was planned also to fire from Battery Stotenberg, with the Thirty-eighth and the One Hundred and Fifty-eighth companies, Captain James M. Fulton, but the accident to the target prevented.

The night practice is scheduled to continue for three or four evenings more. Last night Major John P. Hains, coast artillery corps, was battle commander.

Judge Orders Gun Displayers Disarmed

Revolvers strapped in prominent display outside the coats of several men in the lobby of the Police Court today were observed by Judge Mortimer Smith as he was leaving the court room. An order of disarmament was issued and Bailiffs John Murray and Dufton went among the crowd in the lobby and took revolvers from three men and a slungshot from one of those in the lobby.

"No weapon shall be worn in the police courts," declared Judge Smith, "with the exception of regular police officers. There is no need of any such custom as the wearing of arms in a peaceful court and we will not tolerate it. This order will be strictly enforced."

Judge George Samuels issued a similar order and when his court convened all those in attendance were searched for weapons.

GARBAGE PERMIT STARTS DISPUTE

Refuse Disposal Co. Won't Pay City for Right to Erect Building.

BERKELEY, June 17. — Whether the Refuse Disposal company, to which recently was awarded the contract for building the municipal incinerator, or the city shall pay the cost of the necessary building permit is a question the city council faced this morning. The amount entailed is but $30.80, but the company refuses to pay it.

On advice of City Attorney R. C. Staats, the council also refused this morning to pay the sum. Staats declared that the bids called for the payment of all permit fees and the like by the successful bidder. The refuse

The council this morning received a report from the playground commission advising against the expenditure of any sum for the improvement of Codornices park, which is leased by the city from the Peoples Water company. The commission pointed out that the terms of the lease gave the company power to sell all or any of the property on 90 days' notice, and the commission believed this arrangement did not justify betterment of

The improvement of Neilson street was laid over technically to July 15, though it was tentatively agreed that no work on this thoroughfare would be done before fall. At that time property holders at present protesting are willing to go ahead with the work. A number of West Berkeley women appeared to protest against the improvement of Jones street but decision in the matter was not reached by the council.

Judge Robert Edgar presented his claim for $1197 back salary, recently upheld in the superior court after being fought by the city. It was referred to committee of the whole.

THREE ROUTES PROPOSED FOR FEDERAL RAILWAY

WASHINGTON, June 17. — Three route are under consideration for the Alaskan railroad system which would be authorized by the bill introduced today by Senator Chamberlain. Government construction has received the approval of President Wilson and the measure will probably have his active support at this session. Cordova, Controller Bay and Seward have been considered as the probable terminal for the proposed government system.

With Panama Canal machinery at hand, members of the Senate territories committee estimate that in an emergency, such as a naval campaign in the Pacific, a railroad could be built into the Bering coal fields within three weeks.

FATHER'S BEQUEST IS ATTACKED BY SON

SAN FRANCISCO, June 17. — Louis Levy, who died recently at the age of 83, left $3000 to Mrs. Marie E. Van Wart, one of his tenants, because of kindness shown him during his last years. The balance went to the widow and two sons, John and Benjamin Levy. Today Benjamin Levy contests the bequest to Mrs. Van Wart, saying that she had been allowed to live free for the past year in a cottage belonging to the family.

SEES NO SHAME IN DISHWASHING

Prof. Lange Finds Argument in College Men's Work for New Education.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, June 17. — Professor Alexis F. Lange, head of the department of education, is authority for the statement that dish washing is no disgrace. Regarding the coterie of university graduates who are following that pursuit in San Francisco, he declares that many of them are chronic "misfits" and that they ought never to have gone to college. Lack of vocational training he also blames.

"In the first place," declares Professor Lange, "dish washing is no disgrace. It is an honest means of earning a living.

answer of this condition of affairs, you'd want to know pretty nearly the life story of each man thus employed — the circumstances which put him in the station he is now in—and in completing your analysis you would naturally inquire into the elements of ill health and bad luck.

SPEAKS OF MISFITS.

"'Misfits,'" he continued. "You know there are persons in this class. There are some persons who should never have gone to college. Many, who for a few

"Then there are temperamental difficulties. Some lack application; others lack initiative, lack will power and are not 'Johnny on the spot.' Many lack perseverence, you know there are a great many drifters, in college and outside. Many of them never went far enough in their studies in preparing for a profession.

"One of the difficulties of the present time is the improper development of the school. While we have developed the professional school for a long course, we have as yet only begun to provide vocational training for those who can't go to college, or ought not to.

SHOULD BE TRAINED.

"If we had vocational training in our public schools there would be many who would not enter college. They would receive practical training suited to their individual needs, and of such help that they would leave at the end of their course not needing a college education.

"What we ought to do is to build out our school system from two points. First, we ought to build up the opportunities for boys and girls who won't go further in their studies than the grammar schools. There we need lower vocational training. Stop and think of the number of youths who drift into the messenger service, become bellboys, drive butcher carts and follow other underpaid and unprofessional vocations. The young girls drift into similar work peculiar to their sex. These conditions, I believe, point clearly the need of vocational training."

BERKELEY COUNCIL CONSIDERS BOND SALE

BERKELEY, June 17. — City Attorney R. C. Staats reported to the city council this morning on the proper disposition of bids for the sale of $570,000 worth of bonds for the fire department and new sewers. He advised that resolution for the sale of the bonds be submitted to the bonding expert firm of Goodfellow, Eels and Orrick. Having been passed upon by this firm, he advised the offering of the bonds for sale. Such action will be taken by the council.

BERKELEY BUDGET IS SUBMITTED TO COUNCIL

BERKELEY June 17. — Finance Commissioner John A. Wilson submitted to the city council this morning the budget for the ensuing year. It forecasts an expenditure of $459,905. Of this $407,345 will be raised from taxes and $52,560 from other sources. The chief items in the budget are as follows:

Street department, $125,425; police department, $42,914; fire department, $99,565; inspection, $20,295; health department, $14,105; library, $27,045, and bonds and interest, $24,392.

Following the wedding, Matthebat and his bride are to make a seven weeks' auto tour through Northern California. They are to make their home in Oakland upon their return from the honeymoon.

POLICE SIGNAL SYSTEM ADOPTED

Board to Take Up With the Council Matter of Warnings at Crossings.

ALAMEDA, June 17. — The police and fire commission held a special meeting last night to consider repairing the auto fire engine, wrecked in a collision Saturday with an electric train. The estimated cost is about $2000. A communication will probably be addressed by the commission to the city council. Whether it will pay to repair the engine is not yet clearly determined. There is some talk of trying to construct a hose wagon chassis out of the engine wreckage and purchase a new auto engine. While the city is operating with but one horse drawn engine ... the San Francisco department, to give adequate fire protection temporarily.

The commission went on record last night as favoring the Gamewell police redlight signal system. This system is the same as is in operation in Berkeley. The money for the system was voted last year. There has been a good deal of talk about utilizing the city's street electroliers for the police signaling work. After investigating the commission has decided in favor of the Gamewell system.

... city council the matter of bells and signals at railroad crossings in this city. Chief of Department Walter Steinmetz stated today that had there been a warning bell at Walnut street and Lincoln avenue, the accident of Saturday afternoon that resulted in the wrecking of the city's $5900 fire engine would not have happened.

Bells were placed at certain crossings by the railroad officials some time ago but were removed when residents in the vicinity objected on the grounds that their sleep was disturbed by the bells at night. The matter will probably not come before the meeting tonight, but will be taken up in the next committee session.

Socialists Put to Rout I. W. W. Forces

BUTTE, Mont., June 17. — Mayor Duncan of Butte and the conservative wing of the Socialists put the Industrial Workers of the World forces to rout last night when at the end of a 21-hour hearing a majority of the Socialist state central committee revoked the charter of the Butte local which includes American branch and No. 11, Finnish branch, and granted a new charter to the 96 conservatives who had signed a petition requesting a new charter.

This action of the state committee does not end the fight in the party. There will be an appeal by the radicals to a referendum election and in the event that the state committee is upheld by the referendum the radicals insist they will continue their campaign in favor of Industrial Workers tenets.

Des Moulinais will return by aviation, via Helingsfor, Stockholm, and Copenhagen.

PORT AU PRINCE, Hayti, June 17.—An epidemic of bubonic plague has broken out at the seaport of Jacmel, 30 miles from here. Jacmel has been isolated from the rest of the country by a cordon of troops and the government is taking energetic steps to prevent the spread of the disease

OLD FIRE HORSE RAN FROM HABIT

Beat the Apparatus, But Japanese Laundryman Must Pay Fine.

ALAMEDA, June 17. — The fact that he drove an old time fire horse which runs away whenever the fire bell rings, was not sufficient excuse to save T. Hara, a Japanese laundryman, from a $5 fine in police court this morning for driving over a fire hose Saturday afternoon. Hara bought Mary from the electricity department of the city after City Electrician J. B. Kahn was given an auto.

But Mary had a deep dark past before she found the light in the electricty department and reformed. She was a when the city electrician bought her.

Once a fire horse, always a fire horse, is an active truth. On peaceful, non-fire days Mary wore a deeply penitent, modest air as befitted one with a past which was dead and buried. But let the fire bell ring and Mary became transformed. Her steady, workday jog became a three minute clip and if this was not fast enough to head the running fire apparatus Mary would hug the road closely and run like a deer. She ran with Hara, Saturday, but the hose driving incident which caused Hara's arrest happened after she had beaten the apparatus to the fire and was again a sober, staid, reformed equine.

So the judge fined Hara $5. There is not sufficient profanity in the Japanese language to express Hara's opinion of Mary when the fire bell sends her into action, and he told his story to the police with the aid of good American cuss words. But Mary cares little whether she is cussed in Japanese, English or Esperanto, run she will when the bell rings. The only thing that can beat her on the road as the fire alarm sounds is the fire chief's new auto.

Electrocuted by Trap for Chickens

LOS ANGELES, June 17.—Harold Whittlock, 18 years old, was killed last night while testing a contrivance he had arranged to kill cats, which had been making war on chickens in the rear of a neighbor's house.

Whittlock had rigged up an electric wire across to the top of a chicken fence which he connected with a dynamo in the house. While trying to ascertain whether it would do the deadly work intended, he accidentally completed a circuit and dropped to the ground dead.

Mr. Glass planned to confer again today with President Wilson, though the bill is now for all purposes complete. President Wilson's message is to be presented to the House Friday and the delay in the introduction of the bill is to permit precedence.

FALSE HEART FOR TRUE BARGAIN IS VERY UNEVEN

By LAURA JEAN LIBBEY

[Copyright, 1913, by Laura Jean Libbey.]

LAURA JEAN LIBBEY.

If a girl finds that she has exchanged her own heart for one that is false it is actually unknid to her to hold out the hope that she can perform the miracle of changing it. If she makes the discovery before marriage the power is given into her own hands to make the future a happy or sorrowful one.

Where one finds that a heart is false she should realize that such a one never contained love for her. Even a ne'er do well will make strenuous efforts, aye, change the whole course of his life if need be, to make himself worthy of the woman whose affection he craves. There are women who cast prudence to the winds by clinging to these false hearts, shutting their eyes to the knowledge that their future holds no promise of change in them.

"Once false, always false," is a safe rule to be guided by. There is no way of clinging to a slippery, false heart; no way of holding it fast. Those who are mated with false hearts need the tenderest sympathy. Honor and conscience tie them fast. They cannot break away.

The noblest and best women have looked such situations in the face and made brave determination not to brood and wreck their own lives, but to find what happiness there might be outside of a loveless life. If home had no affection in it because of a false heart therein they sought pleasure outside —that of doing what good they could for their even less fortunate fellow creatures.

One true heart is the greatest balm in the world for a sick heart. Happy indeed is the maid or matron to whom heaven has granted that greatest of all boons, the love of one true heart. They may be called upon to endure the stings of poverty together, but if each is in sympathy with the other its inconvenience and distresses are borne lightly without repining.

The happiest woman on earth is she who can look forward to the home coming of a husband whose greatest contentment is being by her side. There is no distrust between them. The man whose heart is true finds his happiness in surrounding his wife with all the pleasure which his purse and prudence can afford. Her joyous laughter finds an echo in his heart. He is proud of the fact that she looks to him for all the comforts which she has.

True hearts mean happy homes. False hearts mean disaster from every view point. The wife who is wedded to a false hearted husband does not have to turn to a dictionary to learn the definition of grief and loneliness.

The children in the home where true love reigns always have tender and beautiful recollections to carry through life with them. The children whose home is clouded by a false heart which beats in the breast of a husband and father usually make haphazard marriages quite as soon as they are old enough to fly from the uncomfortable nest.

The unfortunate part of it is that nine times out of ten they jump from the frying pan into the fire. True hearts and false ones make for the happiness and unhappiness of the world. The pity of it is that girls do not always know just which ones they are getting in the matrimonial market, owing to the fact that some men who have the basest hearts in their bosoms are the cleverest deceivers.

SHALL SHE MARRY?

"Dear Miss Libbey: I am 17, in love with a young man of 25. My parents are dead and I find it very hard to get along. I love him and I know he loves me, as he has asked me to marry him. I have no one to ask advice of, so I would like to ask you if you think I am too young to marry. My friends all like him and the people I board with think a great deal of him. I have known him for the last two years and have been keeping company with him for the last year.
"L."

While 17 is extremely young to marry, I think in your case, if the fellow is worthy and you love him, it might be advisable. I am sorry always to see girls marry too young.

"Dear Miss Libbey. Is it proper for a girl to take a gentleman's arm when walking on the street? M."

It is decidedly provincial looking for a girl to go along the street hanging on to a man's arm.

"Dear Miss Libby: I am 23 and have been going with a young girl of 19 for two years and have proposed, but with no result. She says she thinks more of me than any one else, but there are two more that are about to get ahead of me. She treats me nice and seems to think a lot of me. Tell me what to do.
"HARRY."

I think you had better stay in the race a bit longer, Harry. It looks to me as though you might win out with a little persistency. And after all, you know, the girls who are the hardest to get are generally the most desirable.

"Dear Miss Libbey: I am in love with a girl just my age, and I intend going away and want to take her with me, for I am afraid some one will take her away from me, and she says she loves me and wants to go, but her parents are not willing to let her go. "A."

Why don't the parents want the girl to marry you? There must be some good reason, for parents do not interfere with their daughters' happiness without a reason. You had better try to win their approval by irreproachable conduct rather than inviting their further censure by encouraging the girl to act against their wishes.

THEY QUARRELED.

"Dear Miss Libbey: I am a young girl and have been keeping company with a young man, but one evening we quarreled. I am going to give a birthday party, and would it be proper for me to invite him? "A."

Yes, Alice, if you like the fellow and your quarrel was over some trivial affair, as I suspect it was, send him an invitation to the party. There is no sense letting some foolish misunderstanding spoil your friendship. Invite him to the party and forget all about the quarrel. You will both be happier.

ST. GAUDENS' CHILD DEAD.

CORNISH, N. H., June 17.—Harold St Gaudens, two-year-old grandson of the late Augustus St. Gaudens, the famous sculptor, is dead at the St. Gaudens summer home as a result of swallowing a poison tablet which he found in a bureau drawer. Although the child died last Friday the facts did not become public until yesterday when preparations were made for the burial.

A WORKER APPRECIATES THIS.

Wm. Morris, a resident of Florence, Oregon, says: "For the last fourteen years my kidneys and bladder incapacitated me for all work. About eight months ago I began using Foley Kidney Pills, and they have done what other medicines failed to do, and now I am doing and feeling fine, I heartily recommend Foley Kidney Pills." Foley Kidney Pills do not contain habit forming drugs and are tonic in acting, quick in results. They will help any case of kidney trouble not beyond the reach of medicine. PLAYS MOVE FAST AT YE LIBERTY

No Waits Between Acts; Two Attractions Seen in One Evening.

Patrons at Ye Liberty Playhouse were treated to a revelation in speed in producing plays last night, when H. W. Bishop inaugurated his latest policy of having two different complete performances between the hours of 8 and 10 o'clock. The first play presented was "All the Comforts of Home," and the second "Seven Sisters."

There were no waits or intermissions. The curtain dropped at the end of one act only to raise again for the succeeding period. The intermission between the two plays is less than is found in ordinary theaters between two acts.

Broderick O'Farrell heads the leading role in "All the Comforts of Home." He gave an able characterization in the role of Alfred Hastings, the nephew of Egbert Pettibone, who rents the flats. Miss Maribel Seymour, as usual, furnished her portion of the comedy in the part of Lize McDow, Alfred's protege. Charles Yule [illegible] called for in Theodore Bender, and Miss Jane Urban flirted outrageously with him in her portrayal of Fifi Oritanzki, the opera singer.

The rest of the cast includes Miss Laura Adams as Josephine Bender, Miss Pauline Hillenbrand, as Evangeline Bender, Miss Marta Golden, as Rosabelle Pettibone; Miss Lois Bolton as Emily Pettibone, Geo. P. Webster, as Christopher Dabney; Jack Pollard, as Judson Langhorne; Walter Whitelo as Augustus McSnath, and Tas Lecy as Victor Smythe.

In the next play the audience was treated to a sight of Franklyn Underwood and Miss Frances Slosson at their best, assisted by able support. Mrs. Nini Gleason gave her usual able portrayal of Mrs. Gyurkovics, the mother of the Seven Sisters. Miss Bertha Creighton, Miss Eleanor Blevins and Miss Jean Deveraux enacted the three eldest sisters. Henry Shumer was a dashing soldier in Colonel Radvanyi, and Claude Archer was cast as Baron Gida, nephew of the Colonel.

The remainder of the cast includes Ethel Tole, Phyllis Gregory, Eugenia Clinchard, Max Walzman, Paul Hillenbrand and Henry Auerbach.

The two plays will be seen at Ye Liberty during the remainder of the week, with the usual matinees.

Is Killed by 4 Feet Fall on Anniversary of Fall of 40 Feet

PHILADELPHIA, June 17.—On the anniversary of a fall of 40 feet, in which he escaped injury, Hugo Walker, a painter, 56 years old, was killed yesterday by falling only four feet. During the last 15 years he has several times had falls of 15 and 25 feet, each time escaping injury. The only times he was injured was when he fell a few feet from a porch and received a fractured skull, and an another occasion tumbling off a fence, when three of his ribs and his jaw were fractured. Yesterday as Walker neared the bottom of his ladder he tripped and fell to the ground, breaking his neck.

WILD HINDU CAUSE OF TERROR; POSSE ON TRAIL

SAN JOSE, June 17.—Several deputy sheriffs left early this morning for the Calaveras hills, in the Mount Hamilton range, to search for a wild Hindu who, nearly naked, has been terrorizing the settlers during the past few days.

PLEDGE FREES MAN.

REDWOOD CITY, June 17.—William Maloney, a Menlo Park retail liquor dealer, who was ordered to appear before the Board of Supervisors yesterday to show cause why his license should not be revoked on the charge of conducting a "blind pig," was forgiven by the county fathers after he had raised his right hand and pledged himself not to break the law again.

ROUTES OF TRAVEL

WHAT CITIES WILL YOU VISIT?

Special Rates East—Attractive excursions to eastern cities have been announced for special dates, commencing in May; they include not only Missouri Valley cities, such as Omaha, Kansas City, but Chicago, St. Paul, St. Louis, gateways to the Middle East; also New York, Boston, Washington, for far eastern travel. On these excursions you can go one way and return another, and include the best to be seen on the western half of our continent. If you will ride one or two thousand miles in Burlington trains and note their operation, their punctuality, the many features that establish their "tone of service," you will understand why so many folks travel via Burlington. If there be "education in travel" no tour of the east is complete that does not include the Burlington.

PRESIDENT OF CHICO NORMAL IS SHOT AT

CHICO, June 17.—A mysterious shot from unidentified persons nearly ended the life of Allison Ware, president of the Chico Normal School, Sunday evening, while he and Edward Sisson, head of education in the Reed College, of Portland, Ore., were riding in an auto along the Esplanade in the outskirts of Chico. A bullet struck the windshield, shattering the glass and passing within an inch of Ware's shoulder.

Investigation failed to reveal where the bullet came from or who fired it. Neither man has reason to believe an attempt was made on his life.

Referee Question Is Next Problem

Billy Fitz Says, Says he:

THE Pacific Coast League baseball season is approaching a critical time for every team on the circuit. Tradition has established July that time it is small cause for worry whether the team is in front or in the ruck, for a variety of causes may contribute during the early months to prevent a team from showing its real merit. After July 4 all excess baggage will have to be weeded out, managers will take fewer chances and make less experiments, every game will count, and the team that has been playing over its head will begin to slip. Things have been drifting along altogether too peacefully lately and the clubs are too closely bunched. Something is sure to happen before the end of July.

"Skeeter" Fanning will climb the hill for the Seals this afternoon, when they open their engagement with the Ducks at Recreation Park. Tyler Christian and "Honus" Mitze looks like the battery for the Oaks at Sacramento.

Finney and Van Cleef have been chased South, in order to give us another chance at Bush and McCarthy. The Sacramento series will be umpired by Phyle and Held.

Now that the Filipino ball team is with us, we can see for ourselves just what civilization has done for the little brown men.

Two extra game series will be played this week. The Wolves and Oaks will play a double-header Sunday, and the Seals and Ducks will play off a postponed game next Monday.

Mitze and the entire Oak grove, including George Schirm, left for Sacramento early this morning.

A Knoxville writer furnishes this account of a mix-up in a recent Appalachian League game at Knoxville between the Knoxville and Johnson City teams, and asks if the umpire was right, and if not what he should have done. The reader can digest the "plays" and decide for himself, but no answers will be printed. However, the proceedings actually came off, and the story as it follows is no "frame-up":

Knox was on second; Rouff was on first. Shean hit an infield fly and was called out by Umpire Campbell. However, during a subsequent argument, Knox beat it from second for home. He trotted across the plate and ambled up to the bench and there reclined, serenly surveying the field from the "dog house." However, some impertinent Johnson City player suggested that Knox had not touched the plate on his way to the bench. Knox heard the remark, jumped from the bench, and went "digging" for the plate as fast as his limbs could carry him. [illegible] saw Knox coming and he tried to head him off. But nay, nay. Knox made a beautiful slide to the plate, got up and dusted himself, smiled and once more walked back to the bench, apparently satisfied with his work. But, another suggestion was made. This time Knox was accused of "cutting" third. So the left-handed swatter again jumped from the bench, passed the home plate with throttle wide open, "jammed on the gas" and went into third at about a mile a minute, stealing third from the home plate for the first time in the history of the game in Knoxville. But after all, Umpire Campbell called Knox out, and all his brilliant work went for naught.

Pennant Winning Means Some Skill, Also Good Luck

"The only man who ever won pennants for St. Louis." That expression, and ones of similar import, appeared more frequently in the obituary notices of the late Chris Von der Ahe than any other sentiment. He won pennants. A flock of magnates who rivalled him and who succeeded him never could.

Pennant winning is a habit. Pittsburg, Detroit, Chicago, New York and Boston have, or had it. Cincinnati once went through a whole season and never lost a game. There were no leagues then.

Since the time of the late lamented Mr. Von der Ahe St. Louis never has had a pennant winner. Cleveland never had one.

The only perpetual contender is John McGraw. He works for mighty liberal folks, his club is located in the richest city in the country and in a community that grows crazy over a winner and drops a loser. Hence, everything has been in McGraw's favor. And he wins. Everything is in Cleveland's favor, and that club never did collect.

As opposed to these, Connie Mack compiles the most wonderful infield of modern times, and pilots the world's champions, sees his outfield wrecked, loads up with some medium priced kids and is on the high road to another flag.

Baseball is a queer game.

Brains do not win pennants—that is, not always. John McGraw acquired the pennant habit by an exercise of gray matter, many dollars and the liberality of a magnate who spends money more freely than any other man in the business.

Cleveland, owned and controlled by Charles Somers, never could collect. Yet he hires scouts by the regiment, buys any player they want, soaked $500,000 in the American league when it started, made $50,000 turn into at least $3,000,000 in business deals, but he can't get a first place team.

Charles Comiskey, one of the smartest men in the game, spends money like water, but since Fielder Jones put a punch of punks and Ed Walsh out in front the White Sox have been unable to collect.

There used to be a saying that the [illegible] Washington would land in front would be when the Nationals were 10 per cent stronger than any club in the league.

The Nationals made a stir last year and they weren't 10 per cent stronger. They still are stirring.

Washington is hotter than any locality this side of Yuma, Arizona, and a place not polite to mention. Not speaking any names, the two hotter towns begin with [illegible].

Major league clubs being recruited from the four corners of nowhere it was said as an excuse of being perpetually eight (until the Browns stole that honor) that the heat in Washington caused the contenders to melt on or about the Fourth of July. 'Taint so. They didn't last year.

After devoting these few lines to this subject is it plain to be seen that we know about as much concerning why clubs win and lose as anybody, and that amount looks like the part of the doughnut not occupied by the dough.

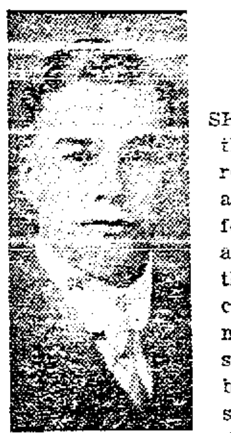
This is the eighth illustrated lesson in life saving and shows one of the methods of resuscitation: artificial respiration and inspiration, accomplished by firm, steady pressure on the lungs from the back, with reverse action at the rate of 15 to the minute. Posed for TRIBUNE.

RESUSCITATION IMPLIES KNOWLEDGE OF ORGANS



By CECIL F. MARTII,

Physical Instructor Oakland Y. M. C. A.

VIII.

SHOULD complication occur of having the patient grasp the rescuer around the body or the body and the arms, rescuer must take a deep breath, lean over the patient and either draw both arms in an upward direction or follow the instructions for releasing one's self if held around the neck. In either case place one hand upon the shoulder and the palm of the other hand against the chin. At the same time place the knee in the abdomen near the lower part of the chest. Then with a sudden strong push straighten arms and legs, throwing the whole body backward. Together with the straining and the sudden motion with the knee, which will expel air from the lungs, the rescuer will secure release.

REAL LIFE-SAVING.

To operate for the resuscitation of the apparently drowned, a general knowledge of the construction and function of the thorax of the breathing and blood-pumping apparatus will help the non-professional. Such a knowledge will prove the reason for obeying certain governing principles, regulating the operation of resuscitation.

BOUNDARIES OF THE THORAX.

The organs of respiration and circulation are enclosed in a cavity (the thorax), conical in shape, formed by the diaphram and 12 pairs of ribs, ten of which are attached to the spinal column at the back and to the breastbone in the front. These ribs rest in a position pointing obliquely downwards towards the front.

RESPIRATION.

Inspiration—In the act of breathing, the ribs are lifted by intercostal muscles upwards and outwards to the horizontal plane. Simultaneously, the diaphram muscle which forms the convex base of the thorax flattens. This combined action enlarges the cavity and fresh air rushes in through the tributary air pipes of the nose and mouth, then down the windpipe to the lungs.

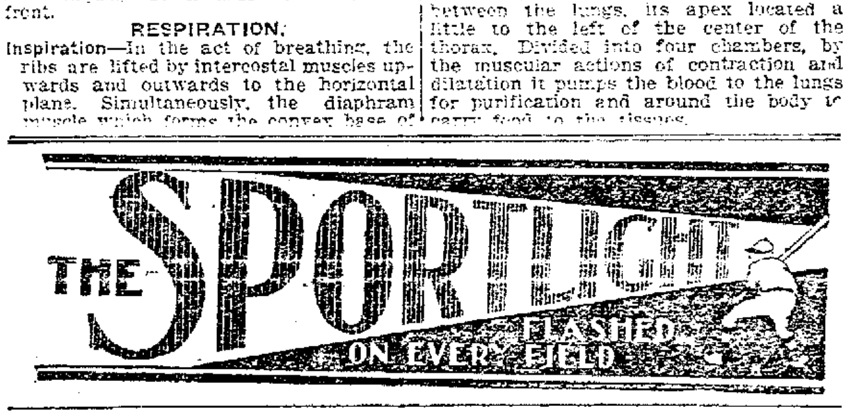
Expiration—The reverse action contracts the cavity, compresses the lungs and expells the foul air (carbolic acid gas).

CONTENTS OF THORAX.

The heart and lungs circulate and purify the blood. Together with the main blood pipes, air pipes and food pipe they are the contents of the thoracic cavity.

THE HEART A PUMP.

The heart is a hollow muscular organ about the size of a closed fist, situated between the lungs, its apex located a little to the left of the center of the thorax. Divided into four chambers, by the muscular actions of contraction and dilatation it pumps the blood to the lungs for purification and around the body to carry food to the tissues.



THE SPORTLIGHT FLASHED ON EVERY FIELD

In baseball there is no such thing as brotherly love. This by way of explaining why we intend to try and stage a wolf slaughter this week. H. Wolverton, take notice.

The result of England's campaign to recover the polo trophy has caused great elation amongst the "wild women."

Having covered themselves with glory by defeating the Oaks so crushingly, we may now expect the Seals to lose five straight to the inoffensive Ducks.

Trainer Walter Christie of the University of California returned from the east yesterday, having taken a ten-man track team there to compete in the annual meet of the Intercollegiate Association of Amateur Athletes of America at Boston and in the western conference meet at Madison, and reports that, all in all, the blue and gold athletes are satisfied with the trip, considering the conditions encountered, but that they are, of course, disappointed that they did not total a greater number of points.

In the opening night of the international tug-of-war tournament which starts tonight at the Pavilion rink, the following teams will be pitted against one another: Austria vs. Sweden, Italy vs. Canada, Denmark vs. Ireland, America vs. England. The first pull will start at 8 o'clock.

Pete Daley, former Angel fielder, now with Connie Mack of Philadelphia, may be sent to the New York Americans, according to the latest word from Ban Johnson.

The world tour of the New York Nationals and Americans next fall and winter will be made on a specially chartered steamer. The suggestion has been made by President Ban Johnson of the American league.

That Funny Old "Red Dog" Slow Now, Was Worse Then

Baseball fans on the coast remember "Brick" Devereaux, the former Oakland and Vernon third sacker, who is now managing the Vallejo club of the California State League. He was one of the funniest characters that ever drew on a uniform.

Bill was playing with Oakland one season and though he hit well and fielded equally as well, his slowness on the bases was a topic that did not escape attention. The fans began to call the "Old Red Dog," as he was called, but their taunts had no effect on him. Devereaux was not the player to be "riled" by adverse criticism.

Finally a game was played at Freeman's Park, and in the fifth inning Bill cracked the ball down the first base line for a safe hit. Here was where Devereaux put one over on the opposition. He started to steal second and so surprised the opposing catcher that he made a bad peg and Bill slid [illegible] dust off his spangles, Bill rose and shouted to the cheering fans: "I am the best base runner in Alameda county, by heck."

They let him alone after that.

Mary Browne Net Queen Triple Honors for Her

ST. MARTINS, Pa., June 17.—Miss Mary Browne of Los Angeles and W. T. Tilden Jr., playing their best tennis of the tournament, won the mixed doubles championship of the United States in the concluding match of the women's national tourney at the Philadelphia Cricket Club yesterday by defeating Miss Dorothy Green and C. S. Rogers in a closely contested match, 7-5, 7-5.

The victory gives Miss Browne all three national tennis titles, as she successfully defended her singles championship against Miss Green on Saturday, and playing with Mrs. Robert Williams won the doubles title from Miss Green and Miss Edna Wildey.

Although the little California girl's triple victory keeps the titles on the Pacific coast, local enthusiasts joined in their hearty congratulations, for aside from the fact that her triumph has been fully deserved, Miss Browne has won her way to favor by her unfailing display of good sportsmanship on the courts during her career in the east.

New Man, Jack Pruitt Wire Says: 'On Way'

The new pitcher who has been purchased in the hope that he will bolster up the Oak flinging staff is Jack Pruitt of the New Bedford Club of the New England League. A telegram received at the Oakland Club headquarters stated that the new man had started for Oakland and would arrive the latter part of the present week. If word can be got to him, Pruitt will be instructed to leave the train at Sacramento and report at once to Mitze.

The same man who recommended Jack Ness to Oakland has tipped off Pruitt. Ness himself vouches for the worth of the newcomer. Pruitt is a right-hander. Before joining New Bedford he was with the Boston Red Sox. Last season in the New England League he had a record of 18 games won and 14 lost, though he was pitching for a sixth place club in an eight-team league.

AMERICANS SHOWING WELL ON LINKS

NEW YORK, June 17. — American golfers who are preparing to compete in the British open golf championship, beginning Thursday, at Hoylake, have made an excellent showing on the one or two occasions they have appeared since their arrival in England, according to reports just received here.

John J. McDermott, the national open title holder, playing with Tom McNamara, the metropolitan open champion, as a partner, was arrayed against S. H. Fry and Michael J. Brady in a four ball match over the mid-surrey links. The two Macks won by the comfortable margin of 6 up and 5 to play, McDermott going around in 68, only two strokes higher than the record held by J. H. Taylor, the famous British player.

The swimming team representing the Multnomah Athletic club of Portland won the majority of the events in the Pacific Northwest championship swimming meet held at Spokane in connection with Spokane's pow wow carnival.

BASEBALL PROBLEMS ARE ANSWERED

Berkeley—To the Sporting Editor: (1) The batter hits the ball to the pitcher and refuses to run to first base, but starts to walk to the bench, the pitcher throws the ball to first baseman but makes a wild heave and the batter turns and runs to first. Is the batter safe or should he be called out for refusing to run? (2) With first base occupied the batter hits the ball to the pitcher, who throws the ball to first base, putting out the batter. Is the runner on that base forced from first?—A Bug.

(1) The batter is out. (2) The batter should be called out and the runner is safe. The ball should have been thrown to second and if then it was thrown to first both runners would be out. The runner on first is not forced to leave the base as long as the ball is not thrown to second before being thrown to first.

Fan, Oakland—To the Sporting Editor: With first base occupied, and only one out, the batter hits a faly ball to the third baseman, who drops the ball and picks it up and throws it to second baseman. The batter stops before he reaches first base and the ball is thrown to the catcher, who runs down the batter. Are both men out?—E. T. W.

Both runners are out; the batter should have run it out. The umpire is supposed to call an infield fly.

Inquisitive Bug—To the Sporting Editor: Runners on third and second bases. The runner on third starts home and the runner from second goes to third. The runner from third sees he is going to be put out and turns and goes back to third. In the meantime the runner from second had reached third base. Can the runner from second return to that base without being called out if he is not touched with the ball?

Yes, he can return.

McAllister-Berg Match Is Now Off; Guarantee Not Forthcoming

(By THE TIMEKEEPER.)

AL McALLISTER, manager for his brother Bob, announced this morning that the proposed match on the 25th of this month with Otto Berg had been called off and that he had called his brother out of the training camp at San Rafael.

McAllister's arrangement with the promoters of the West Oakland club, according to him, was that they were to post $500 in cash last night, but Matchmaker Tommy Simpson claimed that he had not agreed to such an arrangement and McAllister did not hesitate long about calling all the negotiations off.

This means that there is little likelihood of a West Oakland club show this month, as the time is too short to stage a substitute card.

The referee question is already popping [illegible] Eddie Graney. Ritchie is strong for Jim Griffin, but not so with Rivers, who would like a southerner, if possible. The names of Ben Selig, Toby Irwin, Frank Schuler, Harry Foley and others are being mentioned.

Bob McAllister has been offered a ten round bout with George Tabor at Reno on July 4. The men are offered 75 per cent of the receipts. McAllister has written, asking a guarantee and may accept if nothing better shows up. Tabor is the man who fought Sailor Grande and other local middleweights. He is fighting under the name of Joe Taylor now.

Petroskey and McAllister will probably be matched after all by the Oakland Wheelmen. Petroskey's term in the navy expires this month and the fighter then will come under the management of Harry Foley who will consent to a ten round bout with the Olympic club crack. Five hundred dollars is already posted in San Francisco for a match with McAllister by Petroskey at 160 pounds, ringside, with Toby Irwin as referee. The match would be for a purse split 75 and 25, or 60 and 40.

As reported in last night's TRIBUNE "green" the Rivers-Ritchie championship battle will be staged in Coffroth's Mission street arena in San Francisco. Promoter Eddie Graney having finally decided to accept the offer made by his rival.

The site is ideal for the purpose. Graney intends to increase the seating accommodations by over 1000.

Willie Ritchie will go into training quarters at San Rafael Thursday, just two weeks before the scrap.

Jim Griffin's long anticipated June card is announced for the evening of June 24, in Dreamland rink, as follows:

Lee Johnson vs. Johnny O'Leary, 10 rounds.

Walter Scott vs. Young Abe Attell, 15 rounds.

Willie Robinson vs. Bubbles Robinson, 10 rounds.

Ray Baughman vs. Charles Givens, six rounds.

Kid Bertelson vs. Mickey Hogan, four rounds.

Sharkey Was Ring's Most Courageous, but a Dunce

Max Rogers, the German comedian with the musical comedy, "Hanky Panky," has for years been a great admirer and personal friend of Tom Sharkey and believed him in his day to have been the most courageous fighter the ring had ever known. Rogers visited Sharkey in his room at the old Broadway hotel a few days after his sensational 20 round battle with Jim Jeffries at Coney Island when he lost the decision by a narrow margin.

He found Sharkey propped up in bed in plaster casts from his waist to his arm pits and the left side of his face badly battered. Four of Sharkey's ribs on the left side were broken and one on the right and the left side of his face cut and swollen, where Jeffries' pile driver right had done its work.

Sharkey was cheerful and happy and seemed to care little for his injuries and talked only of another match with Jeff. He wanted a smoke but was unable to put the cigar in his mouth and Rogers had to do it for him. His only attendant was his sister who nursed him all through his convalescense.

Many stories are told of Sharkey and his many breaks, but this one which Rogers tells is absolutely new.

"Tom had just opened his new cafe on Fourteenth street, in New York, and invited all the newspapermen to come down and look at it as he was very proud of it. He asked one of the boys what he thought of his place.

"'Well,' was the answer, 'all you need in here now to make it complete is a big chandelier.'

"'I'd have one put in,' answered Sharkey, 'but I don't know anybody that can play it.'"

TIME TO SLEEP.

There was once a ballplayer named "Hap."
At him all the people would clap.

At him they would hiss,

BACKING JACK WHITE TO BEAT DUNDEE

LOS ANGELES, June 17. — With Jack White, the Chicago featherweight in perfect condition in spite of the brevity of his training period, he was heavily backed today to beat Johnny Dundee of New York in their scheduled 20 round bout at Vernon tonight. Although odds were quoted at 10 to 7 and 10 to 8 on Dundee, until today, it was predicted [illegible] ropes at even money.

Both men will fight close to the lightweight limit. With training completed each approached the 130 pound mark when he stepped upon the scales it was announced.

'CHIMMIE DER WHALE' IS PERMITTED TO PASS UNNOTICED

Once Coast Favorite Is Forced Out of Game Forever by Bushers.

Probably not many fans paid any attention to the game last Sunday at Oroville between Marysville and the Olives in the Trolley league, yet the game marked the passing of a once great pitcher, Jimmie Whalen.

"Jimmie de Whale," ex-Coast leaguer and a matinee idol, who in the baseball world has trod the ways of fame and ascended to all the heights of honor, has fallen from the pinnacle of his glory. His arm, which in his palmy days caused the batters untold despair, has failed him. The fans have probably seen Whalen for the last time in action in a league of any kind. He will no more essay the role of a mound artist.

There is no twirler today on the coast who affords a greater example of the fading glory of a baseball hero than Whalen. Fourteen years ago—yes, fifteen years ago—Whalen was the idol of the San Francisco fans. He was rated as the best twirler on the coast, and [illegible] literally trembled as the thousands of people took up the cry of "Jimmie de Whale! Jimmie de Whale!" He won more games than any other pitcher in the league and was feared by every team in the circuit. He pitched many great games, but Time at last got in his work and Whalen had to give way to the younger generation.

At last he was not considered fast enough for the Coast league and was shipped to the northwest. Later he got an ankle hurt and was forced to quit the game for a time. Nothing much was heard of him until lately, when the recollection of Whalen was once more brought to the minds of the Oroville fans by the announcement that he was to twirl for Marysville.

Whalen, like a great many others, thought that he could come back. He still had the old fighting spirit and the old energy, but it was soon apparent that the strength and the ability that he once had was lacking. It must have been a hard lot for this once great twirler to come into a bush league and get bumped the way Whalen did in that first inning.

And when he retired at the end of the fifth inning he was a fallen pitcher. His days of usefulness had passed. He did not come in and sit on the bench, but slowly made his way to the clubhouse. It was brought to his mind more forcibly than ever that he was not the pitcher of old and that he must give way to younger blood.

[illegible] the edge off the sadness of his departure, and that was that Harris did not do any better. Had he gone into the box and twirled shutout ball for the rest of the game the comparison would have been even more vividly drawn.

TUG-O'-WAR IS REVIVED WITH NATIONS AS COMPETITORS

Championship of World Will Be Pulled in San Francisco During 1915.

The international tug of war which starts at te Pavilion rink in San Francisco next Tuesday night and continues Wednesday and Thursday, is the first step of a country wide organized sport to prepare for the world's championships, which will be held in this city during the great 1915 exposition.

The International Tug of War Association, of which D. R. McNeill, the founder of the tug of war cleats, is president, has its headquarters across the bay and immediately after the local tournament the association will take up the holding of tournaments in all the large cities of the country. Next year the association will enter European countries and teams will be organized with a view for preparing for the big world's championships in 1915. These preliminary tournaments will determine the champion team of every country, and it will be these champion teams which will be brought to San Francisco for te Exposition pulls.

Tug of war is a sport that appeals to all classes and all sexes. It is a sport that ladies can attend and derive as much pleasure out of as going to a race meet, a rowing race or a theater. The sport combines all the essentials that bring out the tests of strength, endurance and sportsmanship and at the same time is devoid of the brutal side that so many people claim is the bad feature of prize fighting.

There are eight nations entered in the big pulls which start on Tuesday night. America, Ireland, Italy, Denmark, Sweden, Austria, Canada and England all have their teams trained to the minute and each nation looks for victory.

Governor Hiram Johnson, Mayor Rolph, President C. C. Moore of the Panama Exposition company, directors of the exposition, supervisors, and all the resident foreign consuls have been invited to attend the big tournament, special boxes having been provided for the comfort of these distinguished guests.

COURT'S RULING AFFECTS MARKET

"Bear Selling" Responsible for Early Weakness in Stocks.

NEW YORK, June 17.—Pressure from abroad and further bear selling, based on the supreme court's latest ruling in the railroad cases, were largely responsible for the early weakness of the stock market today. American stocks were heavy in London, where renewal of liquidation was reported, and in the early trading there was considerable selling for London account. When the offerings of the bears failed to shake out any considerable volume of long stock they hastened to cover and the market advanced materially.

Some of yesterday's weak features became strong, especially Union Pacific, Chesapeake & Ohio, Reading, Missouri Pacific, Lehigh, Steel and Southern Pacific made an exceptional gain of [illegible] points.

The market closed firm. Covering of shorts [illegible] after the day's gains had been pretty well eliminated. This buying filled up the list smartly toward the close.

The dullness which came over the market encouraged bear selling on the assumption that the immediate demand had been filled and that stocks would be taken on again only at decided recessions. [illegible] rest of the morning.

Prices failed to hold at their best when demand lessened, but the recessions were trifling and general sentiment still favored the long side.

Bonds were firm.

AMERICAN SCOUT WINS AT TALLAC

McCutcheon Explores the Top of Mission Peak for Motorists.

(By EDMUND CRINNION.)

An "American Scout," the smallest of the American underslung line, was the winning motor car in the Sacramento-to-Tallac endurance contest, held recently under the auspices of a Sacramento newspaper. Besides winning the fine silver trophy donated by the newspaper, the little American established a record for the run which local motorists say will stand for some time. The run was made by the winner, which was the only one of five entrants to finish the race, in 25 hours and 26 minutes, a record lower by nearly three hours than any ever before made.

The Tallac run is one of the most severe in this section of the country. Though the distance from this city to the little town on the shore of Lake Tahoe is but 107 miles, the route is very difficult. In that distance the trail rises from sea level to an altitude of 7528 feet and much of the higher stretch of road was under from one to four feet of snow. The only condition of the race was that each car must make the entire distance under its own power, any failure or accident that necessitated outside assistance disqualifying the car.

The five cars which entered the race left the Sacramento hotel here at 4:48 o'clock in the afternoon in order to take advantage of the cold night air which forms a crust on the snow covering the trail. The American Scout made the run in 10 hours and 22 minutes, arriving at Tallac at 3:10 o'clock the following morning. With a stop only long enough to obtain a supply of gasoline and oil the return trip was begun. The car arrived at the starting point at 5:34 p. m.

Leo M. Nevis, who drove the winner, declared that the little "Scout" was in as good condition at the end of the grueling run as when it started. At no time did it even falter, he said, plowing through ice and snow as steadily as though on the level roads of the Sacramento valley.

McCUTCHEON EXPLORES PEAK.

Yesterday was a strenuous day for G. H. McCutcheon, manager of the Oakland branch house of the Howard Automobile Company. Early in the day McCutcheon got to figuring out where would be the best place for the motorists of Alameda county to locate in order to secure the best view of the big Fourth of July road race and at the same time enjoy a motor picnic.

The big road race is supposed to cover the route from Livermore to Pleasanton and then via Mission San Jose to the Peninsula road into San Francisco. McCutcheon, who has been nursing a hunch that by getting up on top of Mission Peak he could see all the Altamont grade and then pick up the road through Livermore, Pleasanton and Mission San Jose and follow it clear into San Francisco by aid of field glasses. His hunch was good. It can be done. Anyone skeptical about the statement can easily prove the veracity of it by the aid of a good [illegible] glass, but they must get to the top of Mission Peak first.

McCutcheon drove his car up to about one-half a mile of the top when a regular fence came between him and his destination. Of course, fences don't make any difference to Buick cars, but "Mac" decided that he would climb it and walk the rest of the distance—he walked it three times going up and only touched the ground in three places coming down. The hill was steep and the grass dry and slippery. "Mac" would take three steps up and then slide down four for a fresh start, but he got there and convinced himself that he was right. One can surely get an elegant view of the roads from Mission Peak, but you can't see very much coming down. The top of Mission Peak is a dandy place to watch the road race from, but "Mac" is going out to locate another place for himself to stay when the speed demons provide their thrills on the Fourth of July.

RICHMOND MEN ASK FOR HARBOR

Senator Works Criticises the Action in Making States Aid in Improvements.

WASHINGTON, June 17. — Senator John D. Works, who appeared with other members of the California delegation marshaled by Congressman Charles F. Curry in warm advocacy of the Richmond harbor project, yesterday made sharp criticism of the Government attitude toward harbor developmentin the hearing before the board of engineers for rivers and harbors.

Senator Works advocated the building of the harbor at Richmond. He said that, from what he had learned about that city, it was the logical place for an extensive harbor. In his opinion, the United States should build it, and every harbor that was worth building, without asking the cities at which they are to be located to contribute one cent.

"The theory of Congress that a city should donate toward the construction when it asks the Government for a harbor is all wrong," said Senator Works. "These harbors are for all the people—for the United States, and the United States should build them. This proposition of whether a city has grown too fast or whether it is going to grow fast, or whether it has voted bonds to assist, should bear no weight whatever. The question is as to whether it is a logical place for a harbor, and if it is, the United States should build that harbor and ask not a cen donation. It should do this at Richmond."

TELLS OF DEVELOPMENT.

Congressmen Church and Raker were in attendance to let the Board of Engineers know of the development of California and its big valleys which would pour a large percentage of their products through the Richmond harbor. Commissioner of Immigration Caminetti said the harbor at Richmond would be a highly important part of the general development of San Francisco bay when the Panama Canal opened.

Congressman Knowland, who has been behind Curry at every step, told the engineers of the sentiment in favor of the Richmond harbor in all the bay section, saying that it was a part of a general scheme of improvement along the east bay shore. Colonel Thomas H. Rees said he had recommended the project because he deemed it a necessary part of the genral development of San Francisco bay.

After Mayor J. C. Owens had made an opening statement for Richmond, Engineer Havliand presented the detailed data. Others who spoke were Ross Morgan, John H. Nicoll, M. Emanuel, John E. Bouquet and F. L. Hulaniski.

The size of the Richmond delegation surprised the board and at the same time impressed it favorably.

The Richmond men feel that they have made a strong showing and believe approval will be given their project.

CALIFORNIA DELEGATES ADVOCATE HARBOR PLANS

WASHINGTON, June 17. — Delegations from San Francisco, Los Angeles and Stockton, California, accompanied by members of the California delegation in congress, yesterday appeared before the United States board of engineers for rivers and harbors to advocate harbor improvement projects.

Senator Works, addressing the engineers in support of the propositions, took occasion to discuss and criticise the present method of making federal appropriations for rivers and harbors. He disapproved the "contributory" plan, declaring that if the government thought enough of any project to undertake its improvement it should bear the entire expense as a matter of public policy.

DECLARES WOMEN HELPED ROB HIM

Martin Besen Says That He Was Beaten and Relieved of $10 in Coin.

Martin Besen, 1053 Fifty-second avenue, rushed into the Melrose police station last night, and shouted that he had been held up and robbed by two men and two women, who took all his money, consisting of $10 from him. The police searched the neighborhood of the alleged robbery, but failed to find any trace of the thieves.

Besen declared that he left the Southern Pacific train at Melrose and was walking across the creek toward his home, when he was accosted by two women, one of them a negress. They asked him for money, which he refused. A moment later the two women were joined by two men.

"What do you mean by insulting these two women?" demanded one of the men, and struck Besen, knocking him down. The other man [illegible] and the two held him down, while the two women searched his pockets and took his money.

They were not good searchers, however, as the police found about $2 in Besen's possession when he came to report the robbery. The matter is being investigated.

Sit Down a Minute

I want to talk sense to you--and you want to hear it.

"A 2-cent stamp will carry a letter to New York. You wouldn't put a 5-cent stamp on it, would you? That would mean a loss of 3 cents. "Yet you will pay $700 for a Player Piano when a better one can be had for $457.

"Just because you have always been asked $700 or more for a player of this quality, you think that is the fixed price--and it is with every other house, but ours.

We have just received two more cars of these wonderful Players. Our exclusive Pacific Coast representation of this and other factories and the fact that we maintain forty stores on the coast enables us to get this introductory price from the manufacturers. It's easy to quickly find out what is obtainable elsewhere for $700. Shop around all you want to, find out--for yourself the utmost to be had for $700. Don't look at anything for less than $700. Look only at the very best and most expensive instruments, then come here and get a better, a more valuable player piano, better in tone and better in the artistic rendering of your favorite selections at a saving of exactly $243 and on payments of $2 weekly.

Do you suppose we would make a statement like this if it couldn't stand the test? Could we have sold the entire original shipment of sixty-three beauties during our recent sale if anyone had taken up our challenge and disproved our statement?

We have never advertised one Player-Piano as best one month and another make the next as the majority of houses are doing. Our buying department as well as our manufacturing is in the hands of dependable and time tried experts. You may rely upon it that as pioneer Player-Piano merchants we thoroughly understand the Player-Piano business and we have been fortunate in that we have not had to experiment with every Tom, Dick and Harry of a manufacturer who may have come along with a new idea that eventually the piano buying public pays to try out, and after it has failed or proven not up to standard, another is then exploited as the "best."

It is a distinctive and noteworthy fact that Eilers have not figured in this transfer of agencies. Their judgment of years ago that in deciding upon the Autopiano and Player-Piano as the one best and supreme in Player-Piano field has been proven by the unqualified endorsement of the world's greatest musicians, and the test of time. The United States Navy, the United States Army, the great export houses and thousands upon thousands of the best homes will attest to the correctness of this statement. Don't invest money in a Player-Piano that is liable to change values over night, but buy right in the first place and buy at the right price, which the house of Eilers always makes possible.

And let us state then that you can positively rely upon our judgment as to the instruments we sell. We will not sell anything that is not in every way right. We say money back if whatever we may have sold does not in every way prove satisfactory or as represented.

Don't take anybody's word, examine your player piano yourself--compare ours point for point with any other player regardless of price. Better to buy a genuine Autopiano than to wish you had and eventually trade your make-shift rubber tubed player for an Autopiano.

Will You Decide on a Player Piano or a Piano Now?

If so you needn't pay anything down and we will ask $1.00 per week on pianos and $2 per week on player pianos. We have got to get rid of them quickly. Pianos intended for the San Francisco house are pouring in on the Oakland store. They are rebuilding the big Eilers building in San Francisco and can't take any more until remodeling is finished.

Get a new piano for $93.00, a more elaborate one for $160.00, a new player piano for $385.00.

Chickerings, Kimballs, Deckers, Smith & Barnes, Sohmers, Autopianos, all are reduced to unheard of low prices.

Ask about our great and novel thirty-day free trial offer. If you cannot come telephone, but do it quickly. You'll never regret it, for a chance to save money, such as you have now, has never heretofore been presented.
